READ THIS!

The Pilot for 1877.

As the Irish people in America grow more and more into the larger life of their adopted country, it is clearly their interest to be well and wisely represented by their journals as well as by their public men.

THE PILOT will never forget that its sympathies and affections are with Ireland, while its affections, duties, and allegiance are always true to this great Republic.

It shall be the aim of THE PILOT at all times to kill prejudice and strengthen healthy opinion.

It is the duty of every Catholic citizen of this Republic, and of our neighboring nation of Canada, to gauge public opinion with regard to religious questions.

We desire to live at peace with our fellow-citizens of all religions and no religion. We shall protect and defend our rights, if attacked. We shall be careful not to infringe upon the rights of others.

The Catholic Press of America should be a model for the press of all other denominations. THE PILOT will do its part toward winning the respect and goodwill of all men, without abating one particle of sound Catholic principle.

What is said of THE PILOT.

We are proud to lay before our readers the criticisms of the press in all quarters on THE PILOT during the past year. The following are a few extracts:

"The ablest Irish-American paper in the United States."—Jersey City Herald.

"Unquestionably the best of Catholic journals in this country."—Springfield Republican.

"It is the best arranged and newsiest religious paper that comes to us."—N. Y. Herald.

"There is no better influence with the Irish in America"—Boston Advertiser.

"THE PILOT always takes a manly course."—Chicago Tribune.

"THE PILOT is a power in the land."—Hearth and Home.

"THE PILOT is the ablest, most influential and respectable organ of the Catholics in this country."—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

"We admire its broad intelligence."—Cincinnati Catholic Telegraph.

"It is a beneficent power in the community, ably representing the Irish Americans."—Boston Herald.

"It is the ablest Catholic journal in America"—New Zealand Catholic Tablet.

Every department of THE PILOT will be attended to during the coming year with increased care, so as to ensure for this paper the position we have marked out for it—namely,

THE MOST RELIABLE IRISH-AMERICAN PAPER ON THE CONTINENT.

UNDER THE

NEW YORK SAFETY FUND LAW.

CASH CAPITAL, ...	$1,000,000.
ASSETS, JANUARY 1, 1877, OVER .	3,000,000.

The Safety Fund Law provides for the creation of funds from Net Profits, by which larger sums are secured for the payment of losses in great conflagrations; for the payment of such larger sums on demand, and without the intervention of Receivers; and for the complete protection of holders of policies on property outside of the burned district.

The dividends of the Company are limited by the Safety Fund Law to 7 per cent. per annum upon the amount of its capital, and of those funds formed of its profits.

The income from investments largely exceeds this amount of dividend. The balance of interest, and all the profit of its business, go to the increase of the Safety Fund.

"We mean to make these Safety Funds as large as the entire profits of the business and the remoteness of the next great fire will permit."

KNABE

Highest Award at the Centennial.

The United States Centennial Commission and the Judges of Awards have unanimously decreed to WM. KNABE & CO. The DIPLOMA of HONOR and MEDAL of MERIT for Concert Grand, Parlor Grand, Square, and Upright Pianos.

By the system of awards adopted, Pianos of all grades received Medals of precisely the same character, but the true test of merit appears only in the reports of the judges accompanying the medals. The judges pronounce the Knabe Pianos to be the best exponents of the art of Piano-making, and fully entitled to the leading position, combining all the requisites of a perfect instrument in the highest degree: power, richness, and singing quality of tone, ease and elasticity of touch, effectiveness of action, solidity and originality of construction, and excellence of workmanship. The Knabe award is not confined to any single style of instrument, as is the case with other exhibitors in this department, but comprises all four styles, and stands unqualified by phrases indicative of mediocrity.

Every Piano fully warranted for five years.

CHRONOLOGICAL CYCLES.

Dominical Letter	G	Solar Cycle	19
Epact	15	Roman Indiction	5
Golden Number	16	Sundays after Pentecost	27

The calends were the first day of each month among the Romans hence a calendar was a list of the months, beginning with their calends.

The real solar year contains 365 days, 5 hours, 48 minutes, 48 seconds; the common or civil year, only 365 days. But for the neglect of these fractions Julius Cæsar ordered an additional day to be given to every fourth year, introducing it after February 24, called in Latin sextilis; hence these years are called Bissextile. In English they are called Leap Years. The Julian Calendar did not completely rectify the error, and Pope Gregory XIII, in 1582, reformed the Calendar. The days from October 5 to 14 in that year were suppressed, and to prevent errors, the century years 1700, 1800 were not to be regarded as leap years. This reform, called the Gregorian Calendar, most Protestant countries refused, for nearly two hundred years, to accept at the hands of the Pope, and retained the erroneous calendar. In New York, where the Dutch used the correct calendar, the English, on conquering the province, restored an erroneous form, and retained it for a hundred years.

The Epact expresses the moon's age on the first day of the year, and is used to determine Easter, which depends on the moon, being always the first Sunday after the first full moon after the vernal equinox (March 21).

The Golden Number is the number of years that have elapsed since a new moon fell on January 1. It is obtained by adding one to the date, and dividing by 19, the number of years in a cycle.

From eleven times the golden number subtract 10, and divide by 30, subtract 1, and the remainder is the epact.

The epact subtracted from 24 gives the number of days from March 21 to the next ecclesiastical full moon, and the following Sunday, shown by the Dominical letter, is Easter Sunday.

By the reformation of the calendar by Pope Gregory XIII., the year began on the first day of January, and, consequently, whenever and wherever the NEW STYLE of reckoning time was adopted, then and there the year commenced on this day.

Previous to the use of the Gregorian Calendar, the years had different days of beginning at various times in the same and different countries, and occasionally at the same time in the same country. In most countries it began on one of the following days:

Christmas day, the 25th of December;
Circumcision-day, the first of January;
Lady-day, the 25th of March; or
Easter-day, the day of the Resurrection of our Lord.

TO ASCERTAIN THE LENGTH OF THE DAY AND NIGHT.

At any time of the year add twelve hours to the time of the sun's setting, and from the sum subtract the time of rising, for the length of the day. Subtract the time of setting from twelve hours, and to the remainder add the time of rising next morning, for the length of the night. These rules are equally true for apparent time.

HOLYDAYS OF OBLIGATION IN THE UNITED STATES.

All the Sundays of the year—The Circumcision of Our Lord—The Epiphany—The Annunciation of the B. V. Mary—The Ascension of our Lord—Corpus Christi—The Assumption of the B. V. Mary—All Saints—Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary—Nativity of our Lord, or Christmas.

N.B.—Feasts which fall on Sunday are not included in this enumeration.

(In some Western Dioceses the Circumcision, Epiphany, Annunciation, and Corpus Christi are not holydays of obligation.)

FASTING DAYS.

Fridays in Advent. Every day in Lent, Sundays excepted. The Ember-Days (see below). The vigil of Whitsunday or Pentecost, of the Assumption, of All Saints, and of Christmas.

N.B.—1. When a feast falls on Monday, the vigil is kept on the Saturday preceding. To fast consists in abstaining from flesh-meat and eating but one full meal in the day, not before 12 o'clock M. Besides this, a collation, or about the one fourth of a meal, is allowed in the evening. All who have completed their twenty-first year are obliged to observe the fasts of the Church, unless exempted for some legitimate cause.

2. In some dioceses, the Friday of the Ember-Days is the only Friday in Advent on which there is an obligation to fast.

3. It has been directed by the Sacred Congregation de Propaganda Fide, that the feast of SS. Peter and Paul be solemnly celebrated in the United States on the Sunday immediately after the 29th of June, and it is the wish of the Sacred Congregation that the Bishops exhort the faithful under their charge to keep fast on the Saturday preceding that solemn celebration.

Days of Abstinence.

All Fridays. When Christmas falls on a Friday, abstinence is not of precept. Abstinence on Saturday has been dispensed with for the faithful of the United States, except when a fast falls on that day. Soldiers and sailors in the service of the United States, even in barracks, garrisons, etc., are dispensed by the indult of Pope Pius IX. from the rule of abstinence, except on six days in each year, namely, Ash Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday in Holy Week, the Vigil of the Assumption, and Christmas Eve.

Ember-Days.

The Ember-Days are the Wednesdays, Fridays, and Saturdays which occur, 1st, in winter, immediately after the third Sunday of Advent; 2d, in the spring, immediately after the first Sunday in Lent; 3d, in the summer, during Whitsun-Week; 4th, in the autumn, immediately after the 14th of September. They are days of fasting, and of great antiquity in the Church. The object of their observance is to consecrate to God the four seasons of the year, by penance; to obtain his blessing on the fruits of the earth, and to beg of him worthy ministers of the Church. The ordination of clergymen generally takes place, in Catholic countries, on Ember-Saturday.

INDULGENCES GRANTED TO THE FAITHFUL OF THE UNITED STATES.

On the 13th of August, 1792, his Holiness granted to all and each of the faithful of the Catholic communion, living in the ENTIRE* diocese of Baltimore, a plenary Indulgence, to be gained by all who, having made a good confession and holy communion on the days mentioned below, shall visit the parish church or any other; or, if there be no church or chapel, shall devoutly recite five times Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be to the Father, and fervently pray for the propagation of the Catholic faith and the exaltation of the Church.

These plenary Indulgences may be gained on the following days, I.D.

* The Diocese of Baltimore then included all the States east of the Mississippi, except Florida.

From the vigil of Christmas until the day of Epiphany, inclusively.
From the first Sunday of Lent to the second, inclusively.
From Passion Sunday to Maundy-Thursday, inclusively.
From the Vespers of Holy Saturday to Low Sunday, inclusively.
From the first Vespers of Whit-Sunday until the last day of the Octave of Corpus Christi, inclusively.

On the feasts of the Purification, Annunciation, Assumption, Nativity, and Conception of the B. V. Mary, and during the whole Octaves of these feasts.

On the feast of the Apostles SS. Peter and Paul, and during the whole Octave of the same feast.

On the feast of St. Michael the Archangel, and during the whole Octave of the same feast.

On the feast of All Saints, and during the whole octave of the same.

☞ By a decree of the Congregation of Indulgences, published January 28, 1842, in order that the faithful may gain the indulgences published by the Holy See, it is necessary that they should be recognized by the Bishops, and promulgated by them in their respective dioceses.

DIRECTIONS FOR UNDERSTANDING THE ORDO.

The prayers and portions of the Holy Scripture of which the Mass is composed are, in part, unalterably the same, and partly different every day. Those that are fixed and invariable are contained in what is called the Ordinary of the Mass, to be found at the beginning of the Missal. The parts that are changeable or proper—the Introits, Collects, Gradual, Tracts, Epistles, Gospel, Offertories, Secrets, Communions, and Post-communions—form the subsequent contents of the book. As the Prefaces are not so frequently subject to change, they follow each other in regular succession in the ordinary of the Mass.

If a double should fall on a Sunday, then the Mass of the double is said instead of that of the Sunday, unless it be a privileged Sunday, such as the first Sunday of Advent or Lent, Passion, Palm, Easter, Pentecost, and Trinity Sundays, which are never superseded; or a Sunday of the second class, which cannot be superseded except by doubles of the first class, as the 2d, 3d, and 4th of Advent, Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima; as also the 2d, 3d, and 4th of Lent. It must, however, be remarked, that the Gospels for Sundays, thus superseded by doubles, are never omitted, but are recited at the end of the Mass, instead of St. John's Gospel; and also that a commemoration of the Sunday by its proper collect, secret, and post-communion, is always made immediately after the collect, etc., of the festival.

But as it sometimes happens that a double is transferred to some future vacant day, on account of some festival of higher rank intervening, then the difficulty of finding out the day on which such transferred festival is celebrated, as well as all other difficulties regarding the service, may be easily removed by consulting the following Ordo, as a guide to the morning as well as to the evening service of the Church.

1. The Office of every day is either Double, Semidouble, Simple, or of the Feria.

Of doubles (so-called, because the anthems are repeated entire, both before and after the Psalms at vespers), some are of the first class, marked thus in the calendar, doub. 1st cl.; others of the second class, and are marked thus, doub. 2d cl.; others are greater doubles, marked gr. doub.; others common doubles, marked doub.

2. Doubles are always kept on the day marked in the calendar, unless they fall on some Sunday of the first or second class, some privileged feria, or within certain octaves which take place of the festivals; in which case they are transferred to the first day not marked either as a double or a semi-double.

Doub. 1st cl. denotes a great solemnity; doub. 2 cl. a lesser solemnity; greater doub. marks the feast to be of a higher rite than a common double; doub. is the common and most general rank of saints; semid. is less than a double; simpl. shows the feast to be one of the lowest rite; fer. or feria day is a week-day having no feast; great fer. are week-days in Lent, Advent, etc.; Vig. or Vigil is the eve of a great solemnity.

The Sundays of the 1st class, which take place of all doubles, are:

The first Sunday of Advent, the first Sunday of Lent, Passion Sunday, Palm Sunday, Easter Sunday, Low Sunday, Whit Sunday, Trinity Sunday.

The Sundays of the second class, which take place, also, of all doubles, except those of the first class, and of which, in that case, a commemoration is made at mass and in both vespers, are, the second, third, and fourth of Advent; Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima, the second, third, and fourth of Lent.

The Ferias, which enjoy the same privileges as Sundays of the first class, are, Ash Wednesday, All Holy Week, Whitsun Eve, the whole octaves of Easter and Whitsuntide.

In like manner, within the octave of the Epiphany, no feast less than a first class can be kept.

On all other Sundays of the year, if a double occur, it is kept with a commemoration of the Sunday at mass, and at vespers also, except the following day be a feast of the first class.

3. A semidouble (so-called because only a part of the Anthem is said before each psalm at vespers) is marked in the calendar thus, semid., and occurring on any Sunday whatsoever, is put off to the first vacant day; that is, the first day on which there is neither double nor semidouble marked in the calendar. The same is to be observed of all semidoubles occurring within the octave of Corpus Christi.

4. Simples have no mark in the calendar, and are never transferred; but if they fall on Sunday, or on any other day when the office cannot be said of them, a commemoration is made of the first vespers, and at mass; unless it be a feast of the first class (on which no notice is taken of simples), or of the second class, in which case a commemoration of them is made in the Lauds, and at a low private mass only.

5. The following ferias, called greater ferias, take place of all simples, of which there is only a commemoration made at mass, viz., the ferias of Advent and of Lent, the Ember Days, and Tuesday in Rogation Week. A commemoration is also made of the ferias of Advent and of Lent at vespers and at mass, whatever feast happens; but of the Ember Days and Tuesday in Rogation Week, only at mass.

6. If a vigil happen within the octave, the mass is of the vigil, with a commemoration of the octave, unless there be a double or a semidouble feast that day, in which case the mass is of the feast, with a commemoration of the octave, and of the vigil. But if a vigil occur on a feast of the first class, there is no commemoration made of it.

If a festival that has a vigil fall on a Monday, the mass of the vigil is said on the foregoing Saturday, except the vigil of Christmas and of the Epiphany

If a vigil happen in Advent, the mass is of the vigil, with a commemoration of the feria, except the vigil of Christmas.

If a vigil happen in Lent, on an Ember Day, the mass is of the feria with a commemoration of the vigil.

In the paschal time there is no office of vigil, except that of Ascension Eve, which, however, is no fast.

7. When a double of the first or second class, which is a holyday of obligation, falling on any day, is to be transferred, the obligation of the holy day is seldom transferred, but the faithful are generally obliged to hear mass on the day marked in the calendar.

8. When several festivals have been translated from their proper days, they are afterward to be kept in this order: first, those that are doubles, and then those that are semidoubles; and among the doubles or semibles, those whose proper days first occurred, are to be kept first; there are, however, some exceptions to this rule.

9. Coll. or Collect, signifies the oration or prayer. Upon all doubles one collect, secret, or post-communion, only is said; except they fall on a Sunday, or within some octave, or upon some vigil, or in the time of Lent or Advent, or except it occurs with some simple; in all which cases two collects, etc., are said; one of the double, the other of the Sunday, octave, etc.

10. Upon Sundays and all semidoubles, are said three collects, secrets, and post-communions; excepting Sundays, which occur within an octave, on which are said two collects, etc.; one of the Sunday, the other of the octave.

11. The second and third collects, secrets, and post-communions to be said on Sundays and semidoubles in the different seasons of the year, are specified in their proper places.

12. Upon semidoubles occurring within octaves, or in vigils, etc., the second collect, secret, and post-communion are a commemoration of the octave or vigil; and the third of the B. V. M.; but within the octaves of the Blessed Virgin, the third is of the Holy Ghost.

13. On semidoubles in Advent, the second collect, secret, and post-communion, are the collect, etc., of the foregoing Sunday; the third of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

14. Upon simples and ferias, three collects, etc., are said; but if the priest please, he may say five or seven, to be taken out of the divers prayers in the common.

15. Upon week-days, which have no proper office, nor any saint's day occurring thereon, the mass is of the foregoing Sunday.

16. Upon days within octaves, when no proper mass is assigned, the mass is said as on the feast, with three collects, etc.—N.B. The days within octaves are kept as semidoubles only.

17. The collect of the B.V.M. within octaves on vigils and on semidoubles within paschal time, Grant, O Lord, etc., is found in the votive mass of the Blessed Virgin Mary; from Advent to Christmas the collect of B.V.M. is, O God, who wast pleased, read in the mass of the first Sunday of Advent; from Christmas to Candlemas the collect of the Blessed Virgin, O God, who by the fruitful, as in the mass of the Circumcision.

18. The collect of gen. suffr., or general suffrage, is the prayer of the suffrages of the saints, which begins thus, Preserve us, O Lord, found in the ordinary of the mass.

19. The collects for the Church and Pope are said in the mass of the first Sunday of Advent. The collect of the Pope is said on the anniversary days of his creation and coronation; the creation here signifies his election to the sovereign Pontificate.

20. The words ad lib. signify that one is at liberty to recite any of the occasional collects or prayers found toward the end of a missal.

21. The gospels assigned on Sundays are never omitted. Wherefore if a double be kept on a Sunday, at the end of mass is read the gospel of the Sunday, instead of that of St. John; and the same is observed when a double or semidouble is kept upon one day in Lent, or on a vigil or ember-day.

22. Where a special prayer is ordered to be said in the mass by the Bishop, it cannot be said in the place of the third prayer, which is noted ad lib. It must be said as the fourth. This prayer is omitted in all masses of the first class, and in high masses of the second class, unless it be ordered pro causa gravi, when it is said under the one conclusion. It may be said in private masses of the second class.

DIRECTIONS FOR USING THE VESPER OR OFFICE-BOOK.

It appears necessary to explain the order as well as the manner in which that part of the public Liturgy of the Catholic Church called Vespers is recited or sung.

Our Father and Hail Mary being said in silence, the priest, making the sign of the Cross, intones aloud the Versicle, Deus in adjutorium meum intende; to which the choir add the responsory, Domine ad adjuvandum me festina, with the Gloria Patri; and when five psalms with as many anthems have been sung, the priest sings the little chapter.

Then are sung the Hymn, with its Versicle and Responsory, and the Magnificat, with its Anthem, followed with such Prayer and Commemorations as are suitable to the day; which, if it be neither a Double nor within the Octave of a Festival, are the common Commemorations or Suffrages, and are to be found after the vespers for Saturday.

Every double has first and second vespers: the first are said on the eve of the Festival, and the second on the Festival itself. Hence it often happens that the vespers are not of the Sunday, but of some double that falls on the ensuing day.

To find out the particular vespers for every Sunday and holyday throughout the year, consult the Directory at the day of the month on which such Sunday or Festival falls.

EXPLANATION OF THE VESTMENTS AND CEREMONIES USED IN THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS.

All the external rites used in the celebration of the Holy Mysteries are intended for the instruction of the faithful. The chief design of these rites is to commemorate and to represent the passion and death of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. This is plainly to be observed in the Altar and its ornaments, as also in the vestments which are worn by the Priest.

The Altar represents Mount Calvary, where the Redeemer of the world expired upon an ignominious cross. This very word Altar has relation to sacrifice, which must necessarily be offered to God in that church in which his true faith is professed: and hence this name of Altar is mentioned by St. Paul—"We have an altar," said he, "whereof they have no right to eat who serve the tabernacle."—Heb. xiii. 10. The Altar also represents the table on which our blessed Saviour, the night before he suffered, celebrated his last supper with his disciples.

The Candles are lighted during the Holy Mysteries, through a motive of honor and respect. They represent the light of faith, and the fervor of charity, which the Gospel inculcates. They are also expressive of spiritual life and joy. "Throughout all the churches of the East," says St. Jerome, "when the Gospel is to be read, though the sun shines, torches are used, not to chase away darkness, but for a sign of joy."

The Crucifix is placed in the middle of the Altar, to represent to our minds the passion and death of Jesus Christ, which are chiefly to be considered and piously meditated upon in this Holy Sacrifice.

The Amice, a linen cloth which the priest pulls over his head, and fastens round his neck, signifies the linen with which the Jews blindfolded our Saviour in mockery when they smote him and buffeted him, saying: "Prophesy unto us, O Christ! who is he that struck you?"—Matt. xxvi. 68.

The Alb represents the white garment which Herod put upon Christ after he had despised and mocked him.—Luke xxiii. 11.

The Maniple that the priest wears on his left arm, the Stole that he hangs down from his neck, and the Girdle, figure the cords and fetters with which the officers of the Jews bound Christ, and led him from one place to another.—John xviii. 12–24.

The Chasuble, or upper garment, represents the purple garment which the soldiers put upon Jesus Christ, and the heavy cross that he carried on his blessed shoulders to Mount Calvary.

As to the colors of the ornaments with which the priest celebrates the Holy Mysteries, the White is used on the Festivals of our Lord, of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and of all the saints who are not martyrs.

The Red is used on Pentecost, on the Invention and Exaltation of the Cross, and on the Feasts of the Apostles and Martyrs.

The Purple or Violet, which is the penitential color, is used on all the Sundays and Ferias of Advent, and during the whole of the penitential time, from Septuagesima Sunday till Easter; as also on all Vigils, Ember-Days, and Rogation-Days, when the Office is of them, and on the Feast of the Holy Innocents.

The Green is used on all Sundays and Ferias from Trinity-Sunday to Advent exclusively, and from the Octave of the Epiphany to Septuagesima Sunday, exclusively, when the Office is of the Sunday; but in Paschal time the White is used.

The Black is used on Good Friday, and in Masses of Requiem for the dead, which may be said on any day that is not a Sunday or a Double, except from Palm-Sunday to Low-Sunday, and during the Octaves of Christmas, of the Epiphany, of Pentecost, and of Corpus Christi.

1. On the Anniversary of the Consecration of a Bishop the solemn Votive Mass of Consecration should be celebrated in the Cathedral Church. If the Anniversary fall on a Sunday of the 1st Class, within Holy Week, on Easter, Pentecost, Christmas, etc., the Anniversary Mass should (for that year) be omitted. Should it occur upon a Sunday in Lent, the prayer for the Bishop must be said in the "Mass of the time." Throughout the diocese, the commemoration of the same anniversary must be made by every priest with the prayer, "Deus omnium fidelium," in the Votive Mass of the anniversary of the Consecration of a Bishop. This commemoration, however, should be omitted when the Anniversary occurs on Festivals of the 1st Class, Holy Thursday, Holy Saturday, or on any of the Sundays which admit only one prayer at Mass. But on Sundays and feasts of the 2d Class the Commemoration is made with one ending.

2. The Mass for the Transfer of a Bishop must be celebrated in the Church over which he is last placed; and throughout the diocese the commemoration must be on the Anniversary of the Transfer.

INDUCEMENTS TO SETTLE IN MISSISSIPPI.

The following are some of the advantages which the State of Mississippi offers to settlers:

Of course there are great varieties of climate, soil, productions, etc., since the State has a range of two hundred and eighty miles north and south—from the boundary of Tennessee to the Gulf of Mexico. Consequently, the following remarks are not all applicable to all parts. It is advisable that persons should either visit the country, or in other ways make themselves acquainted, before actually moving there.

The mild climate makes the country almost entirely free from consumption, and lung diseases in general are much more rare and much less dangerous than in the North.

Although the summer is long, yet the heat does not become as intense as in New York and Chicago. At Natchez the thermometer seldom rises above 94° Fahrenheit. The summer nights also are longer and cooler than in the North. Sunstroke is almost unknown there.

In winter the freezing is not severe nor long continued, seldom lasting more than three days in succession; consequently the ground is not much penetrated by the frost, and a few days of clear weather dry the surface enough to allow of ploughing and other field work even in January and February.

Vegetables and fruits ripen from six to eight weeks earlier than they do north of the Ohio River; and good railroads, besides the Mississippi River, give quick and cheap transportation to all the Northern markets, east and west.

The shortness and mildness of the winter are such that, in some parts, an industrious man, on a small place, may be able to obtain three or even four crops out of the same ground in one year. Irish potatoes may be gathered early enough to plant sweet potatoes after them; and these may be followed by beans, and afterwards by turnips for the winter.

Figs grow easily and abundantly, and ripen in all parts of the State; and in the extreme south, on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, are oranges and bananas, within three hours' run of New Orleans by railroads.

In the northeastern parts of the State are fertile prairie lands, excellent for grains and fruits.

In some places are beds of marl, which offer an abundance of natural manure easily obtained.

In the south are large tracts of pine timber, with railroads running through them.

In some of the northerly parts is found coal, offering means for steam manufacturing.

Planters are offering their lands in small lots at low prices and on long payments, to encourage bona fide settlers of industrious habits.

The disposition of the people is favorable to the Church. They encourage its increase, even as a matter of policy, to induce settlers to come among them. As for higher motives, they appreciate the doctrines and the institutions of our holy religion much better than they formerly did. In fact—partly owing to the good spirit, and partly to the already increasing number of Catholics—small churches have been opened in twenty-four new places since the end of the war, whereas there had been only fifteen erected in twenty one years before the war. Several others are now building. Catholic schools are opened wherever the Catholic population can support them.

Chills and fever are not much prevalent in Mississippi, unless in the swampy parts of the country, and these are not much inhabited. The chief extent of this State is dry and healthy. The Yazoo district is one of the most fertile tracts of country in the world, and where it is drained and cultivated it is healthy and pleasant.

Persons desiring more particular information concerning the State of Mississippi, with a view to settling in it, can address their enquiries to Governor Humphreys, Vicksburg, Mississippi; or to Col. J. M. Wesson, Jackson, Mississippi.

Professor Hilgard, formerly State Geologist, and Professor George Little, now holding that office, are each of them familiar with the soil and productions of the different parts of Mississippi, and either of them will take pleasure in giving all the satisfaction in his power. Professor Little may be addressed at the State University, Oxford, Mississippi; Professor Hilgard at Michigan University, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

ESTABLISHED IN MARCH, 1870.

Comprises East, Middle, and South Florida.

The State of Florida, excepting that part which lies west of the Appalachicola River, was erected into a Vicariate-Apostolic by a Bull of His Holiness in the year 1857, and in 1870 into the Diocese of St. Augustine.

Bishop—Right Rev. AUGUSTIN VEROT, D.D., consecrated April 25, 1858, Vicar-Apostolic of Florida, translated to the See of Savannah in July, 1861, appointed Bishop of St. Augustine March, 1870, and died June 10, 1876.

Administrator sede vacante—Very Rev. P. DUFAU.

CHURCHES AND CLERGY.

City of St. Augustine, Cathedral of St. Augustine, Rev. Henry Clavreul, rector; Rev. J. M. Fourcade and Rev. D. Bottolacio. The Church of St. Augustine is by far the oldest Catholic church in the land, though it has had many vicissitudes in consequence of frequent changes of flag. The first colonists came from Spain in 1565, long before the Plymouth Pilgrims, who came in 1620. The Church of St. Augustine was fully organized at that early period, and it is the unique privilege of that church to have a full set of church records of baptisms, marriages, etc., from the year 1594, in a perfect state of preservation. These records are now in the city of Havana, where they were carried in 1763, at the first change of flag which made Florida pass under English rule. The population was originally altogether Catholic, and it has continued to have a largely preponderating number of Catholics to the present day.

Chapel of Our Lady of Milk, formerly Nuestra Sra. de la Leche, half a mile north of St. Augustine. The foundations of that chapel have lately been discovered and dug out, and measures have been already taken for its speedy restoration. The spot is hallowed from the fact that a missionary priest, more than two hundred years ago, was put to death there by the Indians, from whom he asked and obtained permission to say Mass, which they attended in silence, and at the end of which they massacred him. There was on that spot, in the time of the old Spaniards, an oratory dedicated to Our Blessed Lady. The chapel perished during the political struggles of Florida; but it is now being restored, and already a fine statue of the Virgin Mother suckling the Divine Infant has been obtained for the church, in order to preserve ancient devotions.

City of Jacksonville, Church of the Immaculate Conception, Very Rev. Peter Dufau, pastor, and Rev. S. Langlade, assistant. The Church of Jacksonville, together with the parochial residence, which was a large and comfortable building, was destroyed by fire during the war, through the recklessness and bigotry of some subordinate officers in the Federal army. The military commanders of the Government, regretting this sad occurrence, gave boards to put up a temporary shelter for the Catholics of this place. This wretched building, which was a sad vestige of our late misfortunes, exists no longer, and the Catholics of Jacksonville have now a noble church which is a credit to their city as well as an honor to their religion. The building has a basement for schools, built of a splendid material —the cochina of St. Augustine, which is a conglomeration of shells cemented together by nature. The cochina is soft enough to be worked easily with a hatchet, and it receives a nail like wood, but is very durable and unalterable in the air. The body of the church is built of white brick, imported from Havre into this place. The large increase of population here has made Jacksonville the emporium of Florida. The new church was opened to divine worship on the 16th of November, 1873.

Key West (the most southerly point of Florida and of the United States), Church of St. Mary, Star of the Sea, Rev. Paul La Rocque, pastor, Rev. Joseph L. Hugon, assistant. The church here during the past few years has received such large additions and such embellishments that it is now virtually a new church, and is the largest and handsomest edifice of the kind in Key West. This enlargement of the church has been absolutely necessary, because there has been lately a large accession to the Catholic population of this place, a considerable number of Cubans having left their island, only a few hours distant from Key West, to enjoy here independence from the Spanish flag.

Tallahassee, capital of Florida, Church of Mater Dolorosa. Rev. J. L. Hugon.

Fernandina, Amelia Island, Nassau Co., Rev. Augustin Spandonari. The Catholics of Fernandina have succeeded in building a new and substantial brick church, which, with its steeple and stained-glass windows, does great honor to their taste and generosity. It has been dedicated to God, under the patronage of St. Michael, in remembrance of Father Michael de Auñon, who suffered martyrdom in this place at the time of the Indian rebellion against the Catholic clergy.

Settlement of Mandarin, Duval Co., Church of St. Joseph. Rev. J. P. Famy. The church here has been this year enlarged and adorned.

Pilatka on the St. John's River, Church of St. Monica, Rev. Felix Ghione.

Tampa, Hillsborough Co., Church of St. Louis—in honor of Louis Cancer, who suffered martyrdom on the coast upwards of 300 years ago—Rev. B. Bernier.

COLORED CONGREGATIONS.

The Catholic colored population of the diocese has received a due share of attention from the clergy, and the results have been very consoling in St. Augustine, where the men have organized a flourishing society under the name of St. Benedict's Colored Catholic Benevolent Association, the patron saint of the society being St. Benedict the Moor, a colored man canonized in the present century by Pius VII. Under the guidance of the Sisters of St. Joseph there are also Catholic associations in a very prosperous state among the colored women and girls of St. Augustine; St. Monica's Society, for the care of the sick; St. Frances' Society, for married women; St. Cecilia's Society, for young colored women. The young colored boys here have lately been organized into a Society of St. Joseph. The colored Catholic population of St. Augustine is large enough to require for their accommodation an enlargement of the cathedral; this has been executed, and two new chapels of St. Monica and St. Benedict the Moor have been added to the time-honored building.

In Fernandina the colored people have a flourishing congregation. The Sisters of St. Joseph have also opened schools for the colored people not only in St. Augustine, but also in Mandarin, Jacksonville, and Fernandina. In other places the Church has not made any gain among the colored population. The very limited number of the clergy, and their yet more limited pecuniary resources, are the causes of this momentary sterility, while Northern fanatics, well salaried by their societies, have put up in many places meeting-houses for them, where these simple, misguided people are drawn together by political excitement, inflamed harangues in the name of liberty, singing, shouting, clapping of hands, dancing, confused vociferations, and other indecorous exhibitions, which they fancifully call religious worship.

INSTITUTIONS.

St. Augustine's Academy. The Brothers of the Christian Schools left their house during the war. It is expected they will soon return. In the meantime a male school is kept, under the patronage of the clergy. All branches of instruction will be taught in the school, including natural philosophy, for which there is apparatus. The Bishop has lately organized this school to destroy the pestiferous influence of a new exotic institution, which, by means of money wrung from the Peabody fund and the school-tax, wages war against the ancient faith in St. Augustine, and aims at introducing Protestantism and infidelity.

Sisters of St. Joseph. The Sisters of St. Joseph have lately been introduced into Florida, where they labor with great zeal for the instruction of the young. They have schools and an academy in St. Augustine, in Jacksonville, in Mandarin, in Fernandina, and in Pilatka.

St. Joseph's Academy, St. Augustine. Rev. Mother Stanislaus, superioress. This institution has extensive grounds and a large building for the accommodation of the boarders. The quiet of the place, the salubrity of the air, and the pleasant temperature of the atmosphere, winter and summer, make it a desirable place for a boarding-school. Young ladies there will be well provided for. Board and tuition in the ordinary branches, per scholastic year, $150.

St. Joseph's Academy, Jacksonville. This institution receives boarders, and has now a good number of young ladies, who receive a thorough education in all the branches. Rev. Mother Sidonia, superioress. Board and tuition per year, $200.

St. Joseph's Academy, Fernandina. The Sisters of St. Joseph have opened a school, and are prepared to receive boarders. Board and tuition per year, $200. Rev. Mother Célinie, superioress.

St. Joseph's Academy, Mandarin, Fla. A neat and spacious building has just received its completion, and the Sisters of St. Joseph have opened a boarding-school and an academy for the children of the settlement. Rev. Mother Julia, superioress. The convent is built in the interior of the virgin forests of Florida, and presents special attractions for those who patronize a rural life. For the accommodation of the settlers, the board and tuition will be per year $150, and may be paid in the produce of the country at market value.

St. Joseph's School, Pilatka. The Sisters of St. Joseph have opened lately a school, and are prepared to receive scholars. Mother Josephine, superioress.

Sisters of the Holy Name of Jesus and Mary. These Sisters, lately come from Montreal, Canada, have opened schools and a boarding academy in Key West. Young ladies from Florida, and also from the Island of Cuba, which is very near, receive there a thorough education. Rev. Mother Félicité, superioress.

REMARKS.—Catholic gardeners and farmers who would like a pleasant and healthy place to settle in would do well to try the neighborhood of St. Augustine. This place was originally colonized by Catholics, and the Catholic element prevails there to this day. But Catholic settlers are invited to come in order to counteract the efforts of some bigoted Presbyterians, who see with malignant sorrow this prevalence of the Catholic element, and aim at destroying it. They have already bought out of their lots and ancestral residences some of our poor native Catholics who could not resist the temptation of cash. A Catholic capitalist could easily restore the balance, and confer a lasting benefit on religion. The country in St. Augustine, and probably throughout Florida, is well adapted to the cultivation of the vine. The natives of this place have, from time immemorial, cultivated two species of grape-vine, probably imported from Spain by their ancestors, and to which they give the names of black grape and purple grape. The black grape, which gives a red wine, very good for the table, and the purple grape, which gives a white wine similar to the Sauterne and the Champagne, grow in St. Augustine with astonishing luxuriance, and the people do not remember a year in which there has been a scarcity of grapes in St. Augustine, or a general failure of that crop, though many supposed that grapes could be used only for the table, and that it required almost a wizard to convert the juice into wine. It is also believed that the orange-tree insect, which had for some years back blighted the prospects of Florida, has now disappeared, and that delicious oranges can now be obtained everywhere as heretofore. An unusual frost, however, on two different years at Christmas has killed innumerable orange saplings, without injuring old trees. Honest, industrious settlers, furnished with a reasonable capital, can scarcely meet with failure.

Irish Ecclesiastical Register.

IRELAND is divided, ecclesiastically, into four Provinces, named after the four Archiepiscopal Sees, Armagh, Dublin, Cashel, and Tuam, which are not coincident with the civil Provinces in which they are respectively situated. The Province of Armagh, containing the Primatial see of All Ireland, embraces, besides the civil Province of Ulster, the whole or portions of the counties of Louth, Meath, Westmeath, King's, and Longford, in Leinster, with Leitrim, Sligo, and Roscommon, in Connaught; the Province of Dublin, under the Primate of Ireland, contains a portion only of the civil Province of Leinster, embracing the whole or portions of the counties of Dublin, Kildare, Wicklow, Queen's, Wexford, Carlow, King's, Meath, and Kilkenny; the Province of Cashel is mainly coincident with the civil Province of Munster, a small portion of the north of Clare—the Diocese of Kilmacduagh—being Suffragan to Tuam; whilst the civil Province of Tuam is smaller than the civil Province of Connaught, and includes the whole or portions of the counties of Galway, Mayo, Sligo, Roscommon, Clare, and King's.

The Province of Armagh includes the Diocese of Armagh, with the Dioceses of Meath, Derry, Clogher, Raphoe, Down and Connor, Kilmore, Ardagh, and Dromore, as Suffragan Sees; total, nine Dioceses.

The Province of Dublin includes the Diocese of Dublin, with the Dioceses of Kildare and Leighlin, Ossory, and Ferns as Suffragan Sees; total, four Dioceses.

The Province of Cashel includes the Diocese of Cashel, and the Diocese of Emly attached, with the Dioceses of Cork, Killaloe, Kerry, Limerick, Waterford and Lismore, Cloyne, Ross, and Kilfenora, as Suffragan Sees; total, eight Dioceses.

The Province of Tuam includes the Diocese of Tuam, with the Dioceses of Clonfert, Achonry, Elphin, Kilmacduagh, Galway, and Killala, as Suffragan Sees; total, seven Dioceses.

There are thus four Dioceses, each presided over by an Archbishop and twenty-four Suffragan Sees, or a total of twenty-eight Dioceses in Ireland, the united Sees of Kilmacduagh and Kilfenora having the former Suffragan to the Archbishop of Tuam, within which Province the whole Bishopric is usually placed, whilst the less extensive Diocese of Kilfenora is Suffragan to the Archbishop of Cashel.

PARISHES AND BENEFICES.—The number of civil or legal Parishes in Ireland is 2,422, and the number of Catholic Parishes or Benefices marked by territorial jurisdiction, 1,077, so that the civil and the Catholic ecclesiastical Parishes are rarely coterminous. The number of Parishes or Benefices in the Disestablished Church is 1,510. Catholics have the deepest interest in adhering to the primitive designation and orthography of the several territorial divisions, Diocesan and Parochial, of the Irish Church, as a classified analysis of the derivation, origin, and history of such designations would form a vast and most important body of evidence, testifying to the intimate connection which subsists between the faith of the people and the very topography of the kingdom.

Monthly reports of behavior, application, and progress are sent to parents or guardians.

None but relations, or those who represent them, are allowed to visit the boarders.

Half-Boarders and Day-Scholars must not absent themselves without previous leave from the College authorities.

The collegiate year is of ten months, beginning in the first week of September and ending in the first week of July.

The College will not take charge of providing a student with clothing or other necessaries, unless a sufficient sum be deposited in the hands of the treasurer.

No reduction in the above-mentioned terms will be granted for absence of less than one month.

Each student must constantly be provided with at least two complete suits (including cap or hat), besides overcoat and fur cap for the winter season, twelve handkerchiefs, six towels, twelve shirts, six pairs of socks, three pairs of shoes or boots.

The College authorities request parents not to allow their sons any extravagance with respect to clothing, pocket-money, etc., but rather to impress upon them the importance of economy. Likewise, they should not allow them to keep any considerable amount of money in their possession.

To avoid delay, mistake, or any other inconvenience, money, bank-drafts, or checks should always be directed to "The Treasurer of St. Mary's College, Montreal."

Academy of Mount St. Vincent,

ON THE HUDSON, ABOVE RIVERDALE, NEW YORK CITY.

UNDER CHARGE OF THE SISTERS OF CHARITY.

This Academy is delightfully situated on the Hudson, at a point which commands one of the most extensive and magnificent prospects along the range of the river from New York to Albany. It is easy of access—the Hudson River Railroad trains making twenty-three stoppings daily at the Mount St. Vincent Station, three minutes' walk from the institution.

The location is exceedingly salubrious, and every possible attention is given to the health of the pupils, who daily exercise nearly three hours in the open air, beginning with a half-hour's walk in common before the morning studies, to secure the bracing effect of early exercise. The institution owns about sixty-three acres—over half of which is thrown open to the pupils for recreative grounds—in the immediate vicinity of the Academy; they are tastefully laid out, the roads macadamized, and the walks flagged.

The Musical Department has the most exact and conscientious attention, and, according to the testimony of the Academy patrons, gives unqualified satisfaction. Incentives to study are many and well-chosen; the general discipline of the school is on the home principle—mutual affection and tender consideration.

No pains shall be spared to make the pupils proficient in French, and recent arrangements to facilitate its acquirement promise success.

The scholastic year is divided into two equal terms. The first commences on the first Monday in September, the second on the 29th of January. As all the advantages to be found by a sojourn in the country are enjoyed at the Mount, it is earnestly desired that parents should be prompt in entering their daughters in September. A forfeit will be demanded from a pupil who returns late; for not only is she a loser by so doing, but the arrangement of the class is seriously deranged.

Pupils received as young as four years.

Semi-Annual Charges (Due in Advance):

Board, Tuition in English, French, Latin in the Higher Classes, Washing, Stationery, Doctor's Fees, Course of Lectures, Calisthenic Exercises, Use of Bed and Bedding, $147 50.

Tuition on Piano and use of instrument, $30; Tuition on Harp, $50; Vocal Music, private lessons or in class (charges regulated by professor); Dancing (charges regulated by professor); Painting in Oils, $20; Drawing and Painting in Water-Colors, $15; Board during Summer Vacation, per week, $5.

It is situated about five miles from Baltimore, on the Northern Central Railway, in one of the most healthy and picturesque sections of the country, and by its lofty grove and flower-crowned site, its extensive buildings, and its handsome play-grounds, attracts the attention of every passer.

Parents and Guardians may rest satisfied that the Sisters who direct the Institution consider themselves bound to respond to the confidence placed in them by giving their pupils a Christian and virtuous education, strictly attending to their intellectual improvement, cultivating that refinement of manners which will fit them for society, and giving them that physical care which they would receive under the parental roof. It is the wish of the Sisters of Mercy that great expense should not be a necessary attendant upon the acquisition of a thorough education; they have, therefore, placed their terms at a rate which they hope will prove an incentive to all who appreciate the advantages of an Academical Course.

TERMS:

The Academic Year is divided into two Sessions of five months each. Board and Tuition, per Academic Year, including Bed and Bedding, Washing, Mending, Plain Needle-work, and Elementary Instruction in Drawing, $220, or $110 for each Session, payable in advance. The pleasure-grounds are ample and retired, prettily laid out, and well shaded by fine forest trees, presenting every inducement to healthful and invigorating exercise. This Institution, well known, locally, as the Pomeroy Property, occupies one of the most beautiful and picturesque sites in this or the surrounding country.

Tuscaloosa presents, on account of its elegant society, healthful situation, and magnificent scenery, more than ordinary inducements to the people of the South as a great educational centre. MOUNT DE CHANTAL

Academy of the Visitation.

This Academy, established in 1848 in the city of Wheeling, by the late lamented Rt. Rev. Bishop Whelan, D.D., was removed in 1865 to its present commanding site at Mount de Chantal, about three miles from the city. The grounds attached embrace an area of 100 acres. The buildings, extending 250 feet front, are fine and spacious, and surrounded on every side by the loveliest natural scenery. The unrivalled healthiness of the locality, the pure mountain air, wholesome country diet, and facilities for out-door exercises and innocent amusements, offer peculiar advantages to pupils of delicate constitution.

The course of instruction embraces all the usual requisites of a thorough and accomplished education, fitting the pupil for the highest social circle or for the office of teacher, but may be modified to suit the wishes of parents and the circumstances of scholars. The institution possesses an excellent philosophical and chemical apparatus, and also a library of choice and standard works, to which the young ladies have access. Every encouragement is given to judicious general reading. French is taught not merely in the class, but practically by conversation. For those sufficiently advanced, it is the language of the recreation hours. The discipline of the school is mild, firm, and parental in its character. Special attention is paid to the manners of the young ladies. The renown for superiority in music is so wide-spread as to have made this Academy almost a national one. To the cultivated lover of music, the most interesting feature of this establishment is the weekly reunion, on Saturday evening, of Sisters and pupils in the spacious music-hall. The exercises of this entertainment consists of choice pieces of vocal and instrumental music, interspersed with readings of compositions from the different classes and selections from eminent authors. The object of these musicales is not only to elevate the taste, but also to secure the habit of self-possession, combined with ease and grace of manner.

One point in particular that should recommend Mount de Chantal to the sensible parent is the influence exercised to form the pupils to views and habits of economy. Simplicity in dress is enforced by rule. These facts, united to the exceedingly moderate rates for board and tuition, will, we trust, secure to this school as large and desirable a patronage in the future as it has enjoyed in the past.

The College building, offering an aspect both graceful and commanding, its halls and Gothic chapel, the additional advantages of an extensive playground and lands recently increased by the purchase of a shady and delightful adjoining property, mark out JEFFERSON COLLEGE as one of the noblest institutions of this State.

The MARIST FATHERS, who regard education as one of their principal objects, are untiring in the efforts to instil into the hearts and minds of their pupils the most strict principles of virtue, as well as the knowledge of all the branches of a sound and practical education.

They would direct special attention to their Prayer-Books, which are got up in every size and every variety of binding and of price, and are the most saleable books published.

School-Books have especially been objects of their attention, and their list includes the Metropolitan Series of Readers, certainly the finest in the market, the well-known Readers of the Christian Brothers, Spellers, Grammars, Elementary Histories, Table-Books, Arithmetics, &c., for which they confidently solicit the examination and approval of teachers, and all engaged in the work of Catholic Education.

For the convenience of persons ordering books for libraries, they have given, in addition to the Catalogue of their own publications, an alphabetical list of all the Catholic books published in America, and a list of Foreign books, which they keep constantly in stock.

Those who favor them with their orders can depend on promptness and strict attention to their commands.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Bookbinding, Manufacturing, PRINTING, &c.

MESSRS. D. & J. SADLIER & CO.

INVITE the attention of the Public to their great facilities in all departments of Book Manufacturing, including Printing, Binding, Illustration, &c. From their long experience, and complete assortment of material and implements required they can in all cases give complete satisfaction, promptly and in a style of superior workmanship.

They especially invite the attention of Clergymen, Heads of Religious Orders and Institutions, Societies, Libraries, and Canvassers to this point.

BOOKBINDING.

An experience of over thirty years enables them with excellent workmen and the newest styles of machinery to defy competion. They can do work better and cheaper than any other house in the country, and have an assortment of stamps, devices, emblems, &c., for Catholic work unequalled anywhere in the world.

Particular attention is given to the binding of serial works, works issued in parts, music for churches or families. In all cases directions are implicitly followed, and the best result obtained. Music and numbers worn at the back by long use cannot be bound so as to be as flexible as what is new and strong.

School, parish and private libraries bound either in strong substantial style or in more elaborate bindings, without unnecessary delay, and with great care.

In all cases, either in town or country, it is most advisable to address this house directly, and then send the books by express. It avoids all misunderstanding as to directions and prevents delay and risk of loss, for we have no agents and are responsible only where parties deal directly with us.

Price lists of our various styles of binding sent on application.

BOOK PRINTING.

Clergymen, Communities, &c., wishing to get up books for their own private use, or for general circulation will find it a great economy both in money, time and anxiety to place the matter in our hands. Long experience in book making enables us to produce books at a far lower cost, and corresponding more closely to the style adopted than any one undertaking it himself. In these cases we will produce the book on most favorable terms, employing the very best workmen and material, and manufacturing the edition at a trifling advance on the actual cost to us, which will be far below the usual trade prices.

JOB PRINTING.

Institutions, &c., wishing really artistic typographical work, on Catalogues, Circulars, Prospectuses, Cards, Sunday School Tickets, with or without engraved vignettes will find that the work will be done more understandingly and in a higher degree of perfection by us than when left to ordinary printing houses.

A WORD ON PRAYER-BOOKS.

Catholic Prayer-Books are now various and abundant, but the faithful in selecting a new Manual of Devotion should be guided by the same rules that guide prudent purchasers generally.

Without wishing to disparage any other house, we can safely affirm that ours is the oldest and largest in the United States. Our books are all prepared under the sanction of the Archbishop of New York, are got up in the very best style, no false economy leading us to offer inferior or careless printing or manufacture to the public.

The compilation and arrangement is in every case the work of Clergymen of acknowledged learning, piety, and zeal, and the various Manuals are adapted to reach the spiritual wants, as well as the means and inclination of each.

To secure really good Prayer-Books, careful in their selections, beautiful in typographical execution, we can, without any danger of contradiction, say—"In all cases ask for Sadlier's Prayer-Books."

We publish books of every size, from the "Golden Manual," the large, full Prayer-Book that has no rival, down to the "Gems of Paradise," a charming little vest-pocket Prayer-Book, clear in type, yet containing not only the ordinary daily devotions, but also the Epistles and Gospels.

They can be had, too, in every variety of binding, from the plain, durable cloth, suited for distribution in schools, &c., to the most elegant velvet and morocco, that elicits all the art of the accomplished binder Indeed, in this department, our own experience as practical binders has produced results, which for beauty and appropriate ornament, are unequaled.

Our books are not hastily got up; our extensive trade requires a large stock, and we manufacture them constantly and carefully. We have, therefore, always on hand at least One Hundred Thousand Prayer-Books, so that none are sent out till actually well dried and fit for use.

SADLIER'S NEW, BEAUTIFUL, AND EXTREMELY CORRECT EDITION.

THE HOLY BIBLE,

Translated from the Latin Vulgate, diligently compared with the Hebrew Greek, and other editions in divers languages;
Being the edition published by the English College at Rheims, A. D. 1582, and at Douay, 1609, as revised and corrected in 1750, according to the Clementine edition of the Scriptures, by the

RT. REV. RICHARD CHALLONER, Bishop of Debra,

WITH HIS ANNOTATIONS FOR CLEARING UP THE PRINCIPAL DIFFICULTIES OF HOLY WRIT.

The publishers invite the attention of all to this edition of the Holy Scriptures, as one that in beauty and legibility of type, as well as convenience of form, surpasses any heretofore presented. And while no care has been spared to render the mechanical execution of the highest order, extraordinary care has been taken to have the text perfect. For the first time, Challoner's own edition of the Bible is really given. Some years since, Cardinal Wiseman remarked that the names Douay and Rheims, as applied to the current editions, are absolute misnomers. He expressed regret that Challoner's revision had not been respected and adhered to, till such time as, by a competent body of translators, an entirely new translation was made, and adopted by the proper authorities.

Acting on this suggestion the publishers have, by the authority of the Most Reverend Archbishop of New York, here given Bishop Challoner's text from his own edition of 1750, correcting merely typographical errors, and conforming in punctuation and the orthography of proper names, to the standard edition of the Vulgate of 1592.

They can therefore present this as a standard edition, free from the omissions and errors that have so long disfigured our Bibles, and as being what it claims to be —the original Douay and Rheims version of the Holy Scriptures, as revised by Bishop Challoner, and published by him in 1750, with his notes and parallel references, carefully compared with the best Latin editions.

It will form a beautiful post-quarto volume, and be as unique in size, excellence of typography and binding, as it is in its perfect accuracy.

The illustrations will be without exception the finest yet seen, consisting of fifteen chromo-lithographs, equal to the highest European specimens of the art, executed expressly after designs of Gustave Doré.

Besides this fine edition, there will be a pocket form, printed on very fine paper, and forming, from the careful arrangement of notes, the most legible and portable Catholic pocket Bible ever seen.

We feel confident that, for reference and daily use, this Bible will supersede every other, and claim that it will justly do so.

NOTICE.

THIS edition of the Catholic Bible will be found to possess claims to public favor, beyond any now in print, in point of accuracy and fidelity as well as in general typographical excellence.

The typographical errors and variations between the current editions have long been a subject of remark. Unauthorized changes were made from time to time.

To obtain a correct text we resolved to reprint Challoner's Bible as originally issued by that great and venerable bishop, under the authority of the Most. Rev. Archbishop of New York, expressed in the following approbation :

"I hereby approve a pocket Bible to be published by Messrs. D. & J. Sadlier & Co., under the direction of Mr. John Gilmary Shea, the text of Bishop Challoner's own edition of 1750 to be followed exactly, correcting merely typographical errors, and conforming in punctuation and the orthography of proper names to the standard edition of the Vulgate of 1592."

+ John

Archbp. of New York

NEW YORK, January, 1869.

This Bible is then really Challoner's, and the corrections only such as he would have made in his errata—errors of the press. It conforms absolutely to the Latin Bibles approved at Rome.

SADLIERS' NEW EDITION OF THE HOLY BIBLE.

CINCINNATI, June 16, 1871.

MESSRS. SADLIER & Co.—I thank you much for your courtesy in sending me a copy of your new, beautiful, and correct edition of Bishop Challoner's translation and annotations of the Holy Bible. The late Most Rev. Dr. Kenrick's version and notes of the Holy Scriptures being rather intended for the clergy, to whom they are invaluable, I have no doubt that your Bible will find favor with Catholics generally, and prove to non Catholics the sincerity of our professions of reverence and love for the Written Word.

Please send me, as soon as published, six copies of "Pocket Catholic Bible."

Respectfully yours,

✠ J. B. PURCELL, ARCHBISHOP OF CINCINNATI.

MESSRS. D. & J. SADLIER & Co.—I have received and perused your magnificent Portable Catholic Bible. Seeing the great care you have taken to render this edition as accurate and faithful as possible, the beauty and elegance of the volume, the handsome type and the exquisite perfection of the press-work, I cheerfully recommend it, and wish it an extended circulation, as a kind of reward for your worthy enterprise.

✠ F. N. BLANCHET, ARCHBISHOP OF OREGON CITY.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24, 1871.

DEAR GENTLEMEN—Please accept my sincere thanks for the beautiful copy of the Pocket Catholic Bible, which you have lately published. I need not state that I am much delighted at your having asked and obtained the merited approval and commendation of your most distinguished Archbishop

Very respectfully,

MESSRS. D. & J. SADLIER & Co.

ST. MARY'S, HALIFAX, July 8, 1871.

MY DEAR SIR—I regret I was from home when your magnificent edition of the Bible and the accompanying note reached Halifax. Accept my sincerest thanks for your thoughtfulness in my regard, and the assurance of the unqualified admiration with which I regard this noble work, and the spirit of enterprise that prompted you in this and in so many other valuable contributions to the cause of religion. Believe me, dear sir, very gratefully yours,

✠ THOMAS L. CONNOLLY

THURLES, July 19, 1871

GENTLEMEN—I thank you for having so kindly sent me a copy of your new edition of the Catholic Bible, being a reprint of Bishop Challoner's edition of 1750, which has just issued from your celebrated printing press, with the authority of His Grace, the Archbishop of New York.

By presenting to the public the Douay and Rhemish translations of the Sacred Scripture, as revised and corrected by Dr. Challoner, your enterprising house has made a most important addition to the long list of Catholic publications which have appeared from time to time under the well-known names of Sadlier & Co., New York.

It is no small recommendation of your Bible that the type is excellent, and the form most convenient, whether for the table or the pulpit.

I believe Tipperary can lay claim to be your place of birth, and we here are proud of you as belonging to Tipperary.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen, your faithful servant,

MESSRS. D. & J. SADLIER & Co.—Gentlemen: Allow me to thank you for the copy which you sent me of your new and beautiful edition of Dr. Challoner's revised translation of the Douay Bible.

The intrinsic value of the work is enhanced by the elegant binding, and by the illustrations copied from the designs of the renowned Gustave Doré.

Faithfully yours, in Christ,

SADLIERS' NEW EDITION OF THE HOLY BIBLE.

ST. JARLATH'S, TUAM, August 19, 1871.

The Archbishop of Tuam requests of Messrs. Sadlier & Co. to accept his warmest thanks for the copy of their magnificent edition of the Holy Bible with which they had the kindness to present him.

It is a production alike creditable to their energy and to the American Press. Whilst so many publishers abuse their wealth in the diffusion of works calculated to injure religion, and the faiths and morals of their readers, it must be a source of the most consoling feeling to the Messrs. Sadlier, of New York, to be the leaders of a far different kind of literature and science—not second to any of those who minister to the amusement of youth. With a constant supply of a safe and charming literature, the Messrs. Sadlier have successfully taken a higher aim; they have, by their present publication of the Bible, taken a lead in sacred literature, and laid those of other lands under deep and grateful obligations.

VANCOUVER, Sept. 28, 1871.

MESSRS. D. & J. SADLIER & CO.—Dear Sirs: I have received, some time since, a copy of your new edition of the Holy Bible, for which I thank you heartily. I have submitted it to one of my clergy—a competent judge in such matters. He praises its mechanical finish and typographical excellency, and would recommend the volume, for its size, as a most desirable travelling companion to our missionaries, for the purpose of securing more accurate quotations in their instructions to the faithful.

But now, the approbation of the Most Rev. Archbishop of New York is certainly sufficient to recommend it to any one.

I have the honor to be sincerely, dear sirs,

Your most devoted servant.

✠ A. M. A. BLANCHET, BISHOP OF NESQUALY.

ST. JOSEPH'S CATHEDRAL, BUFFALO, N. Y., June 25, 1871.

MESSRS. D. & J. SADLIER & CO.—Gentlemen: I very cheerfully concur with the Most Rev. Archbishop in the approbation given to your recent elegant and accurate edition of the "Pocket Catholic Bible," with annotations, &c., by Bishop Challoner.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., July 27, 1871.

D. & J. SADLIER & CO.—Gentlemen: The Most Rev. Archbishop of New York having approved of your new edition of the Holy Bible, I only say that I like its form and size; that, as far as I have dipped into it, I have found it clearly and accurately printed, and that I think you do well in retaining Dr. Challoner's revision until, by a competent and authorized body of translators, a new version or translation be made, which may serve as a standard Bible for all Catholics using the English tongue.

✠ EDWARD FITZGERALD, BISHOP OF LITTLE ROCK

ST. PAUL, MINN., June 12, 1871.

MESSRS. SADLIER & CO.—You have rendered no small service to religion by the publication of your new edition of the Holy Bible. It is the very highest recommendation that you have carried out the suggestion of Cardinal Wiseman, by adhering in this edition to the original Douay and Rheims version, as revised by Bishop Challoner. In point of typography and mechanical execution, it is a work which reflects credit upon you as publishers, and also upon the Catholic public, who no doubt will amply repay you for the pains and outlay which the getting up of such an edition of the Holy Scriptures must necessarily have cost you.

Respectfully and sincerely yours,

✠ THOMAS L. GRACE, BISHOP OF ST. PAUL.

LEAVENWORTH, KANSAS, July 7, 1871.

DEAR SIRS—I have received, some days ago, a splendid copy of your new edition of the Holy Bible. I cannot but admire your skill and energy in giving to the public the most accurate and the most finished, in every way, edition of the Holy Scriptures.

The publishers invite the attention of all to this edition of the Holy Scriptures, as one that in beauty and legibility of type, as well as convenience of form, surpasses any heretofore presented. And while no care has been spared to render the mechanical execution of the highest order extraordinary care has been taken to have the text perfect. For the first time, Challoner's own edition of the Bible is really given. Some years since, Cardinal Wiseman remarked that the names Douay and Rheims, as applied to the current editions, are absolute misnomers. He expressed regret that Challoner's revision had not been respected and adhered to, till such time as, by a competent body of translators, an entirely new translation was made, and adopted by the proper authorities.

Acting on this suggestion, the publishers have, by the authority of the Most Reverend Archbishop of New York, here given Bishop Challoner's text from his own edition of 1750, correcting merely typographical errors, and conforming in punctuation and the orthography of proper names, to the standard edition of the Vulgate of 1592.

A NEW WORK BY ARCHBISHOP MANNING

SIN

AND ITS CONSEQUENCES.

BY HENRY EDWARD,

ARCHBISHOP OF WESTMINSTER.

One Vol. 12mo. Cloth, extra..... $1.00

CONTENTS.

I. The Nature of Sin.
II. Mortal Sin.
III. Venial Sin.
IV. Sins of Omission.
V. The Grace and Works of Penance.
VI. Temptation.
VII. The Dereliction on the Cross.
VIII. The Joys of the Resurrection.

"We have had many volumes from His Grace's pen of this kind, but perhaps none more practical or more searching than the volume before us. These discourses are the clearest and simplest exposition of the theology of the subjects they treat of that could be desired. The intellect is addressed as well as the conscience. Both are strengthened and satisfied. . . . Let men read and ponder over these awful and strengthening truths, as the Archbishop expounds them; they will become better and happier men. They are the words of the Pastor of Souls, and they carry with them a grace and blessing of their own."—London Tablet.

"We know few better books than this for spiritual reading during the present penitential season. These lectures are prepared with great care, and are worthy to rank with the old volumes of sermons which are now standard works of the English tongue."—Weekly Register.

"To praise any work by the Most Rev. Dr. Manning is as useless a labor as to paint the rose; but in this volume there is more of the genial heart-felt style of the eloquent and pious prelate than can be caught always in his pages. The deep philosophy which pervades the book is its chief attraction—it is rendered so gracefully, so simply, and so earnestly. This work is a necessary addition to a Catholic library."—Baltimore Mirror.

ALVIRA, THE HEROINE OF VESUVIUS.

A

Soul-Stirring Tale of the XVIIth Century.

FOUNDED ON THE FACTS RECORDED IN THE ACTS OF CANONIZATION OF ST. FRANCIS OF JEROME.

By Rev. A. J. O'REILLY, D.D.,

Author of the "Martyrs of the Coliseum," "Victims of the Mamertine," etc.

One volume 12mo, cloth extra, gold and ink designs, . . $1 50

The incidents of this remarkable narrative are as startling as any to be met with in the most sensational of modern novels. But, instead of being forced, unnatural, and improbable, they possess the profounder interest of being facts, authenticated by more incontestable evidence than any by which the facts of ordinary history are supported.

The Nun of Kenmare's Prayer-Book.

St. Patrick's Manual; or, The Manual of St. Patrick. Being a guide to Catholic devotion. Compiled from the most approved sources, and adapted to all conditions of life. By Sister Mary Francis Cusack. "The Nun of Kenmare." 1 vol. 18mo.

There are a great many good and useful Prayer-Books, but as different persons have different tastes in such matters, and as many persons like to have more than one Manual of Devotion, it is hoped that this addition to the number will be acceptable. Indeed, the writer has been urged so constantly and earnestly for the last six years to compile this book that she could no longer refuse.

As it is most desirable that we should understand every word we use when praying to our good God, very plain and simple words are used in this work, as it is intended principally for those who have not much time for study.

It is divided into three parts.

The First Part contains Private Devotions; the Second Part, Public Devotions for Mass and Benediction; the Third Part contains Devotions and Intentions for Approaching the Sacraments and for Special Occasions.

A good, clear type has been specially chosen, and the prayers most likely to be said most frequently are given in ample print.

The compiler of this Prayer-Book earnestly entreats the prayers of all who may use it.

Missal for the Laity.

CONTAINING THE MASSES FOR THE SUNDAYS AND FESTIVALS OF THE YEAR.

Translated from the Latest Edition of the Roman Missal.

PUBLISHED WITH THE APPROBATION OF CARDINAL McCLOSKEY.

This elegantly-printed volume is not a mere reprint of some English Missal for the Laity, full of obsolete matter or offices peculiar to England. It is carefully made from the latest Latin edition of the Roman Missal, so as to embrace recent offices, Masses, collects, epistles, etc., and introducing all changes recently made.

2. The Masses of Holy Week are given fully in Latin and English, so that no other book need be required at the Masses during that season.

3. The Ordinary of the Mass, with the prefaces for the whole year, arranged so that no difficulty can occur, are printed, as in the Roman Missal, just before Easter Sunday. This will make it more convenient also, as this part used constantly will be in the middle of the book, dividing it evenly.

4. The Mass of all Sundays, Holydays of Obligation, and all such days of devotion as are generally, will be found here, much of it in Latin and English.

Every pains has thus been taken to render it accurate in matter and elegant in form.

Care has been taken, too, that the Epistles, Gospels, etc., are given with the introductory and closing words of the Missal, without including more than is found there, or omitting any part.

"The United States is the only country where I am really Pope in the eyes of the Government."—Pius IX.

This is the FIRST and ONLY COMPREHENSIVE History of the Catholic Church in the United States ever written. It tells the thrilling story of the Ancient Faith throughout the length and breadth of this great Republic. It comes down to 1876. Its carefully compiled tables of the very latest Catholic statistics will prove of great value. It contains about one hundred biographies—the noble lives of great and good men who left behind them "footprints on the sands of time." Sketches of over thirty RELIGIOUS ORDERS are given. The history of CATHOLIC EDUCATION is presented with accuracy and detail. The chapters on the CATHOLIC LITERATURE of America are the fullest the most complete, ever written. Indeed, this volume, in brief limits, sweeps over the entire field of AMERICAN CATHOLIC HISTORY, BIOGRAPHY, LITERATURE, EDUCATION, and GENERAL PROGRESS.

"A young man of erudition, thought, and research, the author has fathomed his theme in all its parts, now seasoning it with light description, and again laying it bare, even to the depths of refined philosophy. He is to be congratulated on the splendid fruit of his labors. Our Catholic people are deeply indebted to him for a work that will take the front rank in Catholic history."—Toronto Irish Canadian.

"This is a really original book. It is a regular encyclopedia of Catholic information worth fifty times its price. A SOUVENIR OF BAPTISM,

FOR

CHRISTIAN PARENTS AND CHILDREN.

BY A PRIEST OF ST. SULPICE, OF MONTREAL.

Translated from the French with the permission of the Author.

Published with the approbation of His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of New York, and the recommendation of several Archbishops and Bishops of the United States and the Dominion of Canada.

This little work was originally written in French, upon the suggestion of a zealous parish priest, who expressed the desire of having a small book to be distributed after the administration of Holy Baptism, in order that parents and sponsors, as well as the child after years, might know the excellence, appreciate the privileges and graces, and fulfil the obligations which devolve upon them respectively by this venerable sacrament.

For that purpose, in the first four chapters, the author, after having proved that baptism is necessary to salvation and is an undeserved gift of God, shows the incomparable dignity of a soul baptized and the two-fold obligation it contracts of renouncing Satan, and of living in union with Jesus Christ. In the four following chapters he explains the ceremonies preceding, accompanying, and following the administration of the sacrament, and treats of the duties of sponsors, of baptismal names, of the celebration of the anniversary of Baptism, etc. The ninth chapter and the three following are, as it were, a second part of the work. In them the author traces out briefly, but completely, the obligations of Christian parents concerning that child, who belongs more to God than to them, and whom they must prepare by a Christian education for a never-fading crown. An Appendix is added, containing very practical instructions upon the baptism of a child in danger of death.

The French edition, highly approved of by his lordship the Bishop of Montreal, and recommended by several other prelates, having produced fruits of sanctification, some friends of the author have, with his approbation, prepared an English translation, intended not only to be a memorial of the solemn day of Baptism, but also to be given as a prize in schools, catechisms classes, and colleges. They think that even pastors of souls may find in this little book useful matter for instructions upon the sacrament of regeneration.

Besides the Cardinal Archbishop of New York, who has given his cordial approbation to this edition, published in his diocese, more than twenty Prelates, Archbishops, and Bishops of the United States and of Canada have expressed to the author their high recommendation of the English edition. Not being able to publish all their letters, we will give here only a few extracts.

Extracts from Episcopal Letters.

"I read over your beautiful little work on the dignity of Christians by Baptism. I wish it was in the hands of every Christian. It will aid parents and sponsors in their duties towards their children, and will be a beautiful spiritual birth-day present. . . ."

". . . The subject of your charming little book is one which we seldom see so fully explained or so popularly, yet it is of grave importance that every Catholic should be well acquainted with it. . . ."

". . . I am glad your admirable little work has been translated into English, for its perusal is calculated to do much good among our people. I herewith enclose a few lines of recommendation, which may be of use in introducing it to the public:

"'We have read with edification this admirable little book entitled "Souvenir of Baptism." . . . We believe the lessons it inculcates in relation to the great sacrament by which we are made children of God and heirs of heaven are of great practical utility and calculated to do much good; and hence we strongly recommend it to the faithful of our diocese.'"

"I cannot find words to express adequately the value I set on your admirable 'Souvenir of Baptism.' The rare art with which you bring within the reach of the most ordinary mind the sublimest truths, without in the least sacrificing one iota of that theological precision which is so indispensable to the interests of divine Faith, entitles your unassuming little book to a hearty welcome in the bosom of every English-speaking Catholic family in this or any other country, . . . and makes it a very useful contribution to our literature."

"I most thankfully acknowledge the receipt of your 'Souvenir of Baptism,' in its graceful English dress. It is a little book that ought to be put into the hands both of children and parents; it cannot fail to benefit both. I had read it before, but with great interest and real pleasure I looked through it again; and if I might signalize any portion of it, I would say that Chapters IX. and X. appeared to me as most timely, beautiful, and instructive. . . ."

"A more timely reading-book during the approaching season of Lent, for whosoever has a sincere good-will to save his soul, we could not point out. It is the temper of the times, even in religious reading, to ask continually for something new. At the present the newest and rarest may be something old.

"Having kindly received an advanced copy, we have had to read much of it at once, and faster than we liked. We have had to read it to speak of it to others. We find it such a book as is excellently worth reading, and especially in these times. As a spiritual book worth reading, it is worth reading a second, a third, ay, a fourth and fifth time—worth reading till it is fixed not only on the intellect and memory, but till it has taken hold of the will. That is the only way to read a spiritual book like this. Otherwise we but feed a barren curiosity, and are like the man the apostle ridicules as a hearer of the word of God, but not a doer—saying: 'He is like one that takes a hurried look at himself in a mirror, and passing on forgets how he looks, whether his person and dress are in proper keeping or not.'

"We recommend to others what we intend to do ourselves—to make this little volume of four hundred and sixty pages the book for our spiritual reading, and re-reading, during Lent. This treatise is not written for persons belonging to religious communities especially. Its instructions are equally applicable to seculars. It has this further charm: that while, we doubt not, it will prove far the most valuable to those who are far on in the spiritual combat, it is equally adapted even to the rest of us, who have halted so long before the lowest step, if so be that even now we have a 'good appetite'; and, in the spiritual life, a good appetite means a sincere desire to amend our lives, and to be transformed into the image of him that died for us."—*N. OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"Of this exquisite devotion it is the eminent Cardinal writes in this his last contribution to Christian theology. And it is, as he tells us in his preface, 'to the dogmatic side of the devotion he has confined himself.' His reason for this is because 'those who had trusted with a yearning hope that the faith of Englishmen, in the Incarnation at least, was firm and clear were saddened and silenced when the pilgrimage to Paray-le-Monial elicited from some of the highest sources of the established religion a profession of simple Nestorianism.' Of the devotional side of the subject his Eminence writes: 'It is in itself so deep and so intimately related to the personal life and mind of each, that I have always felt it better to use but few suggestive words rather than to draw out devotional acts, which to the writer are no doubt spontaneous, natural, and real, but to the reader may be a burden like Saul's armor to David.'

"This treatise of dogmatic theology consists of ten sermons, or expositions of the deep meaning of certain passages of the N. T. Scriptures. . . .

"Equally terse, pregnant, and lucid is his Eminence's exposition of the dogmatic nature of the Church, in the third sermon: 'The Church is not a stammerer as we are. The Church of God has a divine assistance perpetually guiding it to clothe in language, that is, in adequate expression, the divine truth which God has committed to her trust. Therefore a dogma signifies a correct verbal expression of the truth correctly conceived and known.'

"Precisely that 'power of definite mental presentation,' as Mr. Tyrdall calls it in the December number of the Popular Science Monthly, is one of the most logical of all his theological essays as the English equivalent for the German term Vorstellungs—fähigkeit"—Tablet.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The name of Cardinal Manning to the authorship of a book, and chiefly a book on such a subject as this, is a guarantee for its very high value. Purely devotional, with that high range of thought distinctive of the eminent convert, and filled with that loving earnestness of his nature, he has contributed in this a work of rare excellence to pious literature.—Baltimore Mirror.

This latest work of Cardinal Manning is a companion treatise to his "Temporal Mission of the Holy Ghost." That beautiful volume was mainly intended as an exposition of the workings of the Holy Spirit on the Church and the world; the latter has for its object a portrayal of the Spirit's operations on the Christian soul. Man is, by the grace of the Sacraments, the temple of this third person of the Blessed Trinity; and as the contemplation of the architectural beauties of the glorious material temples of the world tends to raise our minds and hearts to the Infinite Being, in whose honor they have been created, so the study of the graces of a soul, adorned by the Divine Architect, the Holy Spirit, will serve to make us know better, and to obey more lovingly his sacred and life-giving inspirations. The magnificent festival of Pentecost is almost at hand, and we can suggest no work more suitable than this, as a book of meditation, during the beautiful days of Whitsuntide and this season, when the frequent administration of confirmation leads our thoughts naturally toward the Dator omnium munerum celestium.—Catholic Record.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"Those who wish to make themselves acquainted with the real nature and the destructive, anti-Christian character of this insidious enemy of religion, and of both civil and ecclesiastical authority, will do well to procure and read this work. It is the result of a careful study of the system in regard to its designs, plans, principles, and organization, methods of action and practical workings. No one can rise from a careful perusal of this little work without a strong and clear conviction of the hostility to religion and to civil government of the system of Masonry, and of the evils of secret societies generally."—Philadelphia Standard.

"The insidious character of Freemasonry and its rapid spread throughout the world make it important for all thoughtful persons to have some reliable information in regard to the real character and designs of this system, which, while working in the dark, is constantly manifesting its hostility to all legitimate authority, both in Church and state. This work of Monseigneur Dupanloup is the result of a close study by that distinguished and eminently able and learned prelate of the system for several years, and is based on sources of information both abundant and entirely reliable. We commend this treatise, therefore, to the careful perusal of intelligent lay Catholics."—The Catholic Record.

"The circulation of Mgr. Dupanloup's work could not be otherwise than beneficial in our community, where the baneful influence of secret associations in open war against the old Church warps the candor and gentlemanly intercourse of fellow-citizens. Can any candid man endorse without a blush such declarations as those attributed to one of its great orators: 'Catholicism is a used-up formula, repudiated by every sensible man, a worm-eaten fabric. At the end of eighteen centuries the world still finds itself face to face with this bastard religion propounded by the successors of the apostles. It is not the lying religion of the false priests of a Christ which will nowadays guide our steps.' We could quote a string of thrilling blasphemies from recent publications under Masonic auspices. But let our people read for themselves some of the real tendencies of the craft in Mgr. Dupanloup's work."—Montreal True Witness.

A WORK OF ABSORBING INTEREST!

BERTHA.

A Historical Romance of the time of Henry IV., Emperor of Germany.

Translated from the German of Conrad Von Bolanden

BY

S. B. A. HARPER.

One vol. 12mo, cloth extra, ... $2 00
" " " gilt edges, ... 2 50

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The late Augustin Thierry, author of one of the best works on English history, 'The Norman Conquest,' said he was first incited to study the history of the Anglo-Normans by reading Scott's celebrated romance, 'Ivanhoe'; and doubtless many other writers who have become famous in the world of letters have drawn their inspiration from similar sources. Historical fiction, when the main facts of the story are conscientiously presented, becomes a most valuable auxiliary to more serious studies, for it serves a double purpose by conveying instruction while affording rational and healthful amusement.

"Von Bolanden's book, 'Bertha,' is of this class. It deals with an important and interesting episode in the history of Germany and of the Church—the crimes and vices of the Emperor Henry IV., and the efforts made by his Holiness the reigning Pope first to reclaim by persuasion, and afterwards to terrify by excommunication, the astute but corrupt monarch. Henry himself is well and correctly drawn, with all his good and bad qualities as described by contemporary writers; his consort, 'Bertha,' though represented by the same authorities as a most excellent woman, is more a creation of the author, intended, we presume, as a type of the perfect wife. The other characters, landgraves and knights of the feudal age, full of rough piety, and not averse to fighting 'in any good cause at all,' are natural, while the representatives of the Holy See, who are prominent among the chief actors, men feeble physically and without material strength, but of superior mentality, shine forth with all the reflected light of Rome as it shone in the ages of faith. Unlike too many of the works of European authors which come to us second hand, 'Bertha' is admirably translated. The English is pure, precise, and classic; and, were we not aware that it was written in a foreign language, we might well believe that it was originally constructed in our mother tongue, so free is it from double negatives and inverted sentences, peculiar to French and German, but altogether out of place in good English."—McGee's Weekly.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"This work is a striking contrast to the majority of the novelettes which continually issue from the press. It is an historical romance of the Middle Ages, depicted with a bold and vigorous hand, and abounding with stirring and momentous events—a sensational story, indeed, in the truest sense of the term. Great praise is due to the translator for the skilful manner in which she has fulfilled her task, which has evidently been to her a labor of love. The style is so easy and animated that the work does not read at all like a translation. The great struggle between Pope Gregory VII. and the Emperor Henry IV. is fully described in the course of the narrative, and suggests many comparisons with events now passing under our own eyes. We look in vain, however, for a new Mathilda of Canossa to fight single-handed against the power of the tyrant in defence of the Chair of Peter. The remains of this pious heroine lie interred in the Vatican, while her patrimonial estates in Pisa, Lombardy, and other places, which she bequeathed to the Holy See, have been ruthlessly torn from their rightful owner by alien hands. As a vivid picture of European life in the Middle Ages this work has an especial interest, apart from its attractions as a romance."—London Weekly Register.

"Those who have read 'The Jew of Verona' or 'Lionello' need not be told that this book of Father Bresciani's, treating of the time of Henry IV. of infamous memory and the great Pope St. Gregory VII., must be intensely interesting. We will not detract from the pleasure the readers of the story will have by recounting the incidents. Suffice it to say that it contains powerfully-drawn pictures of those troublous times, of the manners, customs, superstitions, impiety, and the faith, zeal, devotion, and sanctity of the men of the Middle Ages. It contains, too, a true and faithful account of the struggles, continued through so many years and so many changes, between the Emperor of Germany, Henry IV., and Gregory VII., a truly great Pope and Saint."—Catholic Standard.

Public School Education.

BY

REV. MICHAEL MÜLLER, C. S. S. R.

A NEW AND REVISED EDITION.

1 Vol. 12mo. Cloth, extra . . . . $1.50.

The scholarly priest who has already won his place in the front rank of the graver Catholic writers of the day, by several powerfully-written works, has, in the volume before us, descended a lower flight from subjects of purely religious and often abstruse character, to the level of the busy life which is surging around us, and attempted to meet one of its most threatening waves, the question of Public School Education. His plan of treatment is simple, but most effectual. He defines education in general; then, the origin of the Public School System; next, he exposes the vital effects of that system—first on males, then on females, afterwards on society at large; he then examines and disproves the State's competency to educate; brands its usurpations in this mighty issue; and having destroyed, by the most powerful showing of facts, the failure of the Public School System, seeks for the means of restoring education to its real function and shockingly-abused mission; this means he finds in the Denominational System; he then adduces the testimony of weighty authority—not only Catholic, but Protestant—as to the character of the Public School System, and closes with proofs of Catholic zeal for education in its true meaning.

The revelations which this author fearlessly makes of the truly awful evils flowing from the Public Schools, are fraught with all the weight of substantial authority. The collection of these, alone, would give this work a prominence in the eyes of all who understand the true education which our unhappy country needs. But when such a mass of testimony is joined to careful study, forcible argument, powerful speaking of the truth, but, withal, due respect for contra opinions and feelings, we must concede to it a place amongst the ablest and most useful books of our time. We only wish such works would be widely and attentively read.

MOORE'S MELODIES.

THE IRISH MELODIES, NATIONAL AIRS, SACRED SONGS, ETC., OF THOMAS MOORE.

With a Memoir and Notes, by JOHN SAVAGE.

1 Vol. 32mo.	Cloth, extra, gold and ink designs, with frontispiece,	$0.75
———	In French morocco, full gilt.....	1.25
———	In finest Turkey morocco.....	2.00

☞ A CHEAP EDITION of the same in paper is in press, and will be issued at the extremely low price of Twenty-Five Cents.

"One of the most charming books of the season has just issued from the press of D. & J. Sadlier & Co., an exquisite little edition of Moore's melodies, Irish, national, and sacred, with notes and memoir, by John Savage. Not only is this new pocket edition of the melodies a model of beauty and elegance in the style of its getting up, but great pains have been taken to make it as complete as possible. In the numerous editions that have been published from time to time in various countries, many of the most beautiful of the world-famed melodies were strangely enough omitted as Mr. Savage remarks in his valuable notes to this edition, but all these omissions he has, we think, successfully labored to supply. All the best of the melodies are in it, and only the best, those, namely, that will secure to the Bard of Erin for all time a first place amongst the sons of song. In this edition will be found many which are not so well known as they ought to be, owing to the incompleteness of former editions."—Tablet.

"The Irish Melodies, National Airs, and Sacred Songs of Thomas Moore, edited with a Memoir and Notes by John Savage. This volume—which is a gem of typography—is designed to present in a pocket-edition the beautiful themes upon which the fame of the great lyric poet of Ireland rests. It is a remarkable fact, to which Mr. Savage draws marked attention, that most of the editions of Moore in circulation are incomplete to an extent almost beyond comprehension. An idea of this incompleteness may be obtained when it is known that of the famous Irish Melodies from eighteen to fifty-three are variously omitted in the editions of Moore which are in popular circulation.

"The present edition is complete in every particular, giving all the Irish Melodies, all the national songs written by Moore to the airs of foreign countries, and all his beautiful sacred songs. These are given with the poet's final revisions, great pains and care having been taken by the editor to present these great works of Moore in the most perfect form possible. Of Mr. Savage's literary character we need not speak in advance further than to indorse the guarantee it gives of a comprehensive memoir and just critical estimate of the 'Bard of Erin.' Concluding his notes on the incomplete editions of Moore, Mr. Savage truly says :

"'To all cultivated readers this volume should be welcome as a convenient remembrancer of some of the most exquisite songs ever written ; while in possessing themselves of a perfect edition of the thoughts which have shed such lustre on the home of their race, those of Irish birth or extraction in this country may echo the poet's own sentiment, that "absence, however fatal to some affections of the heart, rather strengthens our love for the land where we were born ; and Ireland is the country of all others which an exile must remember with enthusiasm."'"—Citizen.

TRUTH AND ERROR.

BY REV. HENRY A. BRANN, D. D.

AUTHOR OF "CURIOUS QUESTIONS."

1 Vol. 16mo. Cloth, extra.....$1.00

THE end of the treatise is this: That denial of anything belonging to the Catholic Church is logically atheism. For instance, the denial "of the minutest portion of her liturgical service is, in principle, a logical denial of all the beautiful—consequently a denial of goodness, of truth, and of God himself." The steps which lead to this are arranged in notably excellent order, and would be very logical were it not that every conclusion is braced with a gratuitous assumption before the next step is taken. The author possesses a good style and much facility in the use of "philosophical" terms.—N. Y. Evening Mail (Protestant).

WE have found chapter vii, on "Voluntary Error and Atheism," the most interesting one in the book, though those that precede it are less poetical and more scientific. In fact, one who reads "Truth and Error" together with "Curious Questions," may acquire a knowledge of the most interesting questions in philosophy, which he cannot find in any other works in the English language so far as our erudition goes.—Tablet.

IT is a logical and Scriptural argument, under various heads, against the scepticism growing out of recent English and German writers on Mental Philosophy. The reasoning, solid concentrated, contrasts very strongly with the verbosity which is the predominant fault of modern theological discussion.—Philadelphia Press.

"THE work should be extensively circulated, as its perusal might disabuse many a well meaning person of the errors into which they may have unwittingly fallen."—Pittsburgh Catholic.

SERMONS

EVERY SUNDAY IN THE YEAR

AND FOR THE

HOLIDAYS OF OBLIGATION.

By Rev. William Gahan, Ex-Prov. O. S. A., with a Preface by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Walsh, D. D., of Halifax, N. S., to which are added an Index of References and a Synopsis of each Discourse. Edited by Rev. James O'Leary, D. D. A new, revised, and corrected edition. One vol., 8vo. Cloth, extra beveled boards. $3.00. Half morocco, $5.00.

In this volume the faithful will find a sermon for every Sunday in the year and every holiday of obligation, which those of them who are prevented from attending Church and assisting at Mass may read with great edification. Father Gahan's style is glowing and sometimes florid; his method clear and logical; and the reflections interwoven with the doctrine natural and pertinent. He worthily occupies a high rank among the distinguished champions of the faith to whom Ireland has given birth. His various works of piety and learning are enshrined in the memory of many an Irish Catholic, and are held in high esteem. His sermons contain a valuable and large fund of sound morality and pious instruction, and are equally suited to the learned and to the uneducated.—Catholic Standard.

The Messrs. Sadlier have here reprinted, in fine style, the noblest efforts of this great divine, a service to the public of no mean importance, as the original edition of this estimable work had some time since been exhausted. The fame of Father Gahan as a pulpit orator is matter of history. He has long since passed to a better world to receive the reward of his arduous labors, but he still lives in the burning words of wisdom and sanctity which he has left as a precious legacy for the instruction and edification of the faithful. The preacher will find this book an assistant that will lighten the heavy load of his many burdens, while to the general reader it will furnish the richest of pious, learned, intellectual food. The book is a very valuable acquisition to Catholic literature.—Irish American.

Nothing better can be said for this modest volume of excellent sermons than is said in the prefaces. Though adapted to the comprehension of every reader, the clergy will probably be most benefited. Some instruction will be found suitable to every holiday of obligation during the Christian year. In most parishes but one priest is to be found, and in the multitude of their labors but little time is permitted for study and the preparation of sermons. Yet preaching is the right arm of the Church for the dissemination of religious truths. Protestants have preaching alone; all acts of worship being virtually discarded by them as superfluous. Yet we see how with this one instrument of the Catholic evangel they continue to exist and propagate their errors. It is to be feared Catholics do not value it sufficiently. One word more: These are Irish sermons. By far the larger part of our parishes have at least a sprinkling of Hibernians, yet very many of our priests are French, Italian, Belgian, and German. They cannot do better than to study English idioms, adorned with occasional sprigs of the shamrock.—Catholic Advocate.

SCHOOL EDITION.

A work that should be introduced into every Catholic school in the United States.

A Bible History,

With Maps, Illustrations, Examination Questions, Scriptural Tables, and Glossary, for the use of Colleges, Schools, Families, and Biblical Students.

BY REV. JAMES O'LEARY, D.D.

1 vol. 12mo, 504 pages. $1 50.

This book is illustrated by sixty full-page engravings, engraved from original designs in the best style of the art. Printed on toned paper, and bound in the best manner, and issued with the sanction and approbation of the Most Rev. John McCloskey, Archbishop of New York.

It is one of the cheapest books, considering the great amount of valuable information relating to the Books of the Bible and its history, that has ever been published.

The great demand for Bible literature in our time, and the necessity which exists in an intelligent Christian country of supplying Catholic educational institutions, families, and Biblical students with full and correct Scriptural information, have induced the publishers to spare neither time, thought, nor expense on the work which is now presented to the American public.

The publishers are glad to announce that the labors of the author have been honored with the high sanction of the venerable Archbishop McCloskey's name. In preparing this book for the public, learning, art, poetry, and geography have been called into requisition. It contains 504 pages, is printed on tinted paper, and sold at a very low price. The publishers, relying on the intrinsic merits of Dr. O'Leary's "Bible History," present it with calm confidence to the public, and expect a liberal patronage for their labor and enterprise.

Copies for examination, with a view to its introduction, will be forwarded by mail on receipt of the advertised price, and special terms will be made for its introduction into schools and academies. For further information, address

Opinions of the Press.

"The divisions and methodical arrangement of the book, and the pithy examination questions added to each chapter, place the subject matter in its most striking light before the student."—Tablet.

"Dr. James O'Leary's 'Bible History' is the work of a young and ripe scholar, from whom we have a right to expect much more than this performance, creditable though it be. The book is designed for the advanced classes of the school-room, as well as for the leisure hours of the family circle. The completeness with which sacred history is treated, the novelty of arrangement and method, and the pains taken to help the student by maps and illustrations, cannot fail to impress the reader with the fact that this is the best book of the kind ever issued by the Catholic press of the United States."—New York Sun.

Mt. St. Mary's, Manchester, N. H., Oct. 15, 1873.

To Messrs. Sadlier & Co., Publishers:

Gentlemen: I thank you for the copy which you sent me of a work entitled "Bible History," by the Rev. J. O'Leary, D.D. I have delayed acknowledging its receipt to allow myself sufficient time to form a judgment of its merits and contents.

It contains a vast amount of information in a clear and methodical form, and meets the wants of our institution in a more satisfactory manner than any book of its kind hitherto offered in the market. The reasoning of the chapters is clear, the questions for examination pointed and comprehensive, and the style classical. The value of the illustrations, maps, and glossary cannot be overestimated. It affords me great pleasure to recommend it to the houses of the Mercy Order, as well as to all others. Please send me, to begin with, twenty-five copies, and oblige,

Your obedient servant in Christ,

M. M. XAVIER,

Superioress of Mt. St. Mary's, Manchester, N. H.

This work has been very favorably received, and is recommended for general use in schools and academies. It will be introduced on very favorable terms, and copies sent, on receipt of the price, by mail for examination.

THE VICTIMS OF THE MAMERTINE.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

This exquisite volume of rare and priceless interest contains some of the most valuable Christian lore of the first apostolic age and those immediately following. It is a worthy and fitting companion for "The Martyrs of the Coliseum," by the same distinguished author, whose works, few as yet, have won for him a high place amongst the Catholic writers of our day. The Mamertine prison is chiefly known, even to Catholics, as that from which the Apostle St. Peter was delivered by an angel; but so many other illustrious Christian heroes were for a shorter or longer time the tenants of that gloomy subterraneous abode during the first ages of the Church and the various persecutions which marked their course in blood, that it is well to know who were "the victims of the Mamertine." And no one could tell the dismal yet most exciting tale better than the present author, whose noble and graceful style, profound erudition, and intimate knowledge of pagan and Christian Rome, as illustrated by their respective monuments, peculiarly fit him for the task. In all respects, we consider "The Martyrs of the Coliseum" and its companion volume now before us, "The Victims of the Mamertine," two of the most attractive as well as valuable works that our age has received on Christian archæology and hagiology combined.—New York Tablet.

That astonishing remnant of antiquity, the Mamertine Prison, is literally one of the most venerable of dungeons. Entering it—and we who write this have entered it—that dreadful subterranean excavation, hidden in the bowels of the earth, in the very centre of Rome—the mind is carried away beyond the lapse, not of nineteen, but of nearly thirty centuries. Six hundred and forty years before the coming of Our Lord the Mamertine Prison had been already dug out of the rocky soil hard by the Capitol. The cloaca that have drained the Eternal City for twenty-four centuries, the giant aqueducts, the ruins of which are scattered picturesquely all over the Campagna, were built by slaves, who, when refractory, were punished by confinement in the Mamertine. It is seven hundred years older than the Pantheon, than the Coliseum, than the Palaces of the Cæsars, of which two latter structures the crumbling fragments alone remain. Above the Mamertine formerly stood the courtrooms of the dungeons. There now stands, and for centuries has stood, instead a lovely Christian church, the Church of St. Martina in Forum. The Mamertine consists of two prison chambers—not an upper and lower one, as we should say, but a lower, and a still lower one. Each of them is carved with blow of chisel and mallet out of solid blocks of Peperino. According to the original mode of using them, they were entered from above—the doomed prisoner being lowered down through an aperture in the centre of the ceiling. The one first entered is the more ancient of the two. It is sixteen feet high, twenty-two broad, and thirty long. It bears about it the massive character of the epoch of the Etruscans. It was built B. C. 640, by Ancus Martius. The dungeon below it is believed to have been constructed as a Tullian extension. It is the most appalling place of incarceration—one might rather term it of interment—well imaginable. Through an opening in the floor of the chamber above it the victim was hurled into a dark and rugged cavern, hewn out of the dædal rock. Its gloom was horrible; its atmosphere foul and pestilential. The roof, when carefully examined, is found to be a marvel of architectural ingenuity. Gigantic masses of volcanic tufa are ranged in parallel layers, converging to a centre. No air, no light was admitted. Here, one after another, on their way from earth to heaven passed the blessed footsteps of a martyred host. Here, in these very dungeon chambers, the holy apostles, Peter and Paul, tarried a while—the Prince of the Apostles for nine months together—on their way to their celestial martyrdom.—London Weekly Register."

"The Mamertine prison was famous for the revolting cruelties and crimes perpetrated within its walls by the pagan rulers of Rome, long before the advent of the Redeemer. Kings and princes and successful generals met their fate within its dungeons. Jugurtha, Leganus, and the companions of the conspirator, Catiline, with many great political leaders, ended their days amidst the torturing gloom and nauseating stenches of the Mamertine. But its choicest cruelties and most ingenious tortures were reserved for the professors of Christianity, who were gathered from all parts of the Roman empire, and consigned to the hideous caverns of the Mamertine, to await the martyr's crown. Since the day when SS. Peter and Paul breathed its fetid air to the conversion of Constantine, numberless were the Christian heroes imprisoned within its chill chambers, and led forth from its portals to be cast to the lions. The author skilfully gathers together the silken threads of tradition and weaves them into a beautiful fabric of attractive interest."—Western Catholic.

"The Mamertine was once the Bastile of Rome, and something more. In its dreadful dungeons were immured the noblest and bravest of the children of the early Church. No prison on earth was ever more loathsome and none ever witnessed such triumphs of divine love and constancy. Its records have been gleaned from various sources by an enthusiastic pilgrim to the Eternal City, and chiefly from the venerable archives of Benedictine, Augustinian, and Dominican learning. We have read through this book from title to colophon, and confirm the assurance of the author that we shall find the charm of novelty in many of his selections. We add that matters already known are invested with freshness and interest. . . . . We may say generally of this work that it is one that will be laid down with reluctance, not only by the pious reader, but even by the seeker after sensational excitement. It is calculated to generate a taste and a desire for the study of hagiography, and unless we are much mistaken, it will form the model on which other works of similar tenor and purpose will be written in the time to come."—London Tablet.

"The Martyrs of the Coliseum" will have prepared the reader for another treat in this later work of the same author. Dr. O'Reilly is one of the most diligent workers of the rich mine of Christian traditions so successfully explored by Cardinal Wiseman, in the preparation of Fabiola. The author claims great authenticity for the records of this prison, the high position of its victims rendering the task of identification one of comparative ease. While the world is being filled with the exploits of "the heroes of paganism, who were at best but tyrants and murderers," we should not ignore the deeds of those truer heroes—the persecuted champions of the early Christian Church."—Catholic World.

THE MARTYRS OF THE COLISEUM;

OR,

HISTORICAL RECORDS OF THE GREAT AMPHITHEATRE OF ANCIENT ROME.

BY REV. A. J. O'REILLY, D. D.

A New and Enlarged Edition, with Frontispiece.

One Vol. 12mo. Cloth, beveled boards, ornamental gilt sides, ink designs.... $1.50
——————— Cloth, gilt " " " " 2.00

This work has already been translated into a number of foreign languages, and the learned author has recently received a letter from the Holy Father recommending it, of which the following is a copy:

"REV. SIR: Our Most Holy Father has desired me to signify to you that he has been pleased to receive, with the annexed letters of homage, the volume published by you entitled 'The Martyrs of the Coliseum.'

"Your work is the more acceptable to his Holiness, as in those days of bitterness and impiety it is the more needed; for whilst the enemies of religion and imitators of pagan outrage have cast deep profanation on the sanctity of that place, consecrated with the blood of so many martyrs, removing the very emblems of religious worship by which it was adorned, and depriving the faithful of the privilege of praying in its sanctified precincts, truly your work cannot lack a special utility, since it seeks to preserve the due veneration of that holy place, and to cherish the pious memory of the glorious conquests there gained by the martyrs of Christ. Wherefore, his Holiness has been graciously pleased to impart to you the Apostolic Benediction, which we pray God may propitiously extend to you. Your most humble and devoted servant

"JOANNES SIMEONI, Secretary.

"ROME: Given at the College of the Propaganda, March 4, 1874."

"The style of this admirable work is classically elegant and most captivating, clothing the grand and noble subjects of which the author treats in the graceful garb of chastely beautiful language. There is in the several narratives nothing of the cold, severe barrenness of style that so often repels and even disgusts the reader in lives of saints in archæological works. While adhering closely and faithfully to historical truth, the gifted author has not neglected to invest his really valuable work with the choicest ornaments of style and diction."—Tablet.

"We do not believe we can recommend to our readers a more useful, instructive, and entertaining book. The narrative abounds with incidents so picturesque, surprising, and delightful, as to equal the richest fancy of the novelist. The learning and piety, as well as the brilliant style of the author, are conspicuous in every page of this golden book. We cordially recommend it as combining entertainment with instruction and piety."—Civilta Cattolica.

"We may say without exaggeration, that in interest and value it surpasses Fabiola. It is more strictly historical, deals with a larger number of persons, and is the history, not of one heroine, but of the Coliseum itself, and of those who, in different times suffered within its walls."—Tablet.

"It it curious that of such a place the literature of England, so vast and so embracing as it is, contained not a single authentic history; and it is all the stranger still since the materials for such a compilation lay in abundance for the diligent searcher in the libraries and archives of Rome. We rejoice that such a state of things is ended now, and we rejoice still more that the truthful records of the Christian glories of the Coliseum should be written by the hand of a son of the 'Catholic Isle of the West.'"—Freeman's Journal.

"Few books are more likely to enchain the interest of children than this. It is a beautiful record of the triumphs of Christianity."—Church Review.

LIVES

IRISH MARTYRS,

BY

D. P. CONYNGHAM, LL.D.,

Author of Lives of the Irish Saints, etc

1 Vol. Crown 8vo., with steel plate. Cloth, extra.....$2.00
" " " Cloth, gilt.....$2.50

"Mr. Conyngham's work combines the merits of a history and a series of biographical sketches. He traces the history of Anglican and Presbyterian persecutions in Ireland from the time of Henry VIII. to the middle of the eighteenth century. He shows the cruel and unjust character of the legislation on which those persecutions were based, and gives enough of biographical details to furnish the reader with the means of forming a correct conception of the saintly and heroic character of those who sealed their faith with their blood. We strongly commend the book to all who desire to acquaint themselves with the particulars of the martyrdoms of Ireland's faithful children."—Philadelphia Standard.

"Did the Irish saints in their sorrows and martyrdom dream that at a distant day, in a far-off continent, one of their exile countrymen would place their records on the tables of fellow exiles, side by side with the Bible? Yet so it is. No Irish family should be without this book. It will warm the faith in the old generation, enkindle enthusiasm in the young, and preserve the religion of St. Patrick on this continent to future ages. It is a monument of glory for the Irish race, and does great honor to the spirit and enterprise of the publishers."—Tablet.

Extract from the Preface.

"In the following pages I have endeavored to give an account through extracts from his books of his present views on the chief matters of general interest on which he has written from time to time. I have sought especially to present his mind on the great religious questions which have so largely exercised the intellect of this age, and which, even in the judgment of those who are unable to accept his conclusions, he has faced, investigated, and determined for himself with an unflinching courage, and an unswerving steadfastness of purpose, almost as rare perhaps as the high mental endowments which he has brought to the task. * * * * * In compiling my volume I have primarily endeavored to consult for readers who from want of leisure, or from other reasons, are unable to procure and peruse for themselves Dr. Newman's writings at large, and who desire to possess in a compendious form a summary prepared with his approval of his ultimate judgments on the most important matters of which he has written during the last half century."

THE ORPHAN'S FRIEND.

A series of Plain Instructions for the use of Orphans after leaving the Asylum, and for persons of the same class living in the world. By Rev. A. A. LAMBING, late Chaplain of St. Paul's Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum, Pittsburgh, Pa.

1 Vol. 16mo. Cloth, extra $1.00
" " Gilt edges 1.50

There is much truth in the author's remark in his Preface that young persons leave school, or leave the home of their parents, "at a period in life when they stand most in need of direction and control;" and the book which he has written for the guidance of such young persons is exceptionally suited for the purpose. With a simplicity which is very winning in itself, combined with great judgment and taste, the writer has compiled a book of advice—for such it really amounts to—which may be read with advantage and with enjoyment, not only by the young but by the old, and which cannot fail to be interesting to all classes. He has the art of uniting refinement with most explicit elaboration of his subjects, so that the book is free from those defects in taste which not unfrequently mar spiritual reading. We are sure that parents may place this book in the hands of young persons who are just going forth into the world, with the conviction that it will be a good companion, and will certainly save many from much mischief. Though designed expressly for young orphans, it is adapted for all conditions of young persons; while people of any age would find it pleasant reading, and would derive from it no little wisdom. —London Tablet.

The intention of the author of this volume is one which all persons who have observed the temptations to which youth—whether orphans or otherwise—are exposed, must highly appreciate. His labors are announced as a series of plain instructions for the use of orphans after leaving the asylum, and for persons of the same class living in the world. It surely is a sweet and kind design to continue to the former the religious ministrations which have filled the young heart with purity and hope, and to extend over them into the ways of the world the elevating examples which were daily illustrated by the very lives of those who exercised parental care over them. As we glance through the Rev. Mr. Lambing's pages we are continually arrested by the judicious selection of his themes and the happy manner of their treatment. We may instance the chapters on the "Necessity for Instruction," "Pious Reading," "Fidelity," "Good and Bad Company," "The Value of a Good Name." Well adapted as they are for the purposes intended, they are equally valuable to orphans of a larger growth.—Manhattan Monthly.

This is an excellent little book, written expressly for orphans, by one who knows their wants, and knows, too, how to supply them. Orphans, the author tells us, form a distinct body, with peculiar trials and temptations; they need, after leaving the protecting roof of our charitable institutions, a friend to go with them into the world, where they are exposed to so many dangers and temptations. Such a friend is the author of the volume before us, which we feel sure will do great good, if widely circulated. To secure this, the publishers generously offer a liberal discount to institutions ordering in quantities. The book is well printed and bound, and is sold for the low price of $1.—Ave Maria.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

We have been exceedingly pleased with the tone of this work. We are all apt to declare doctrinal stories "dry," and discard them from our table, at least we used to do so; but now it is fashionable to be intellectual or to seem to be so, and one of the most popular forms of displaying "our little learning" is to talk theology (!). If some of our self-made theologians and dogmatic chatter-boxes, such as Messrs. Furness, Frothingham, Chapin, or even Messrs. Moody and Sankey, would only have mind enough or humility sufficient to read this little book, what a benefit it might be to them. If their pride would counteract its influence on themselves, its perusal might have some effect on the strong-minded among their female disciples, who are always "investigating" Christianity, instead of believing the Word of its Founder. "The Trimming of the Hedges" is the most appropriate title that we can apply to the thorough dissection which this book gives to the theology of the gentleman with that florally intricate name. The authoress lops off the various branches of his religious theories in a manner sufficient to make a regular clearing in the bushes that are planted by men and run wild on the border of the highway of Christian theology.—Catholic Record.

FLOWERS OF CHRISTIAN WISDOM.

By Lucien Henry, late Scholar of the Universities of Paris and Nancy. With a Preface by the Right Hon. Lady Herbert of Lea. One vol., 32mo, cloth, red edge. 75c.

Some one or other says that "he is no common benefactor who shrewdly gathers up from the world's manifold literature its words of finest wit and maturest wisdom for our entertainment, instruction, and inspiration," and certainly the author of the valuable little work before us deserves a golden crown of gratitude for the painstaking labor he has undergone in culling, for our gratification, this charming bouquet of intellectual flowers. It is, indeed, as Lady Herbert says in her preface, "a compilation of gems of thought, carefully selected from the best authors. . . . It is embued with a thoroughly Catholic spirit, and will be very valuable to the student and general reader, and still more to the writers of serious books, as a dictionary of reference, which will spare them many hours of tedious research among scattered materials of thought." We earnestly commend it to the attention of our readers.—Irish American.

This is an exquisite collection of beautiful thoughts from Christian authors of the highest standing in the world of letters—a bouquet, so to say, of the choicest "Flowers of Christian Wisdom." Dedicated to the eminent English writer, Lady Herbert, the volume is enriched by a preface from her elegant and classic pen. What she there says of the value and utility of such an epitome of condensed thought for writers, speakers, and general readers will be indorsed by every intelligent Christian. Every one knows how easy it is to fix in the mind a maxim or aphorism that may embody the substance of a whole eloquent discourse. Here, then, are maxims and short sentences on all manner of subjects, from the very best Christian authors.—New York Tablet.

"Flowers of Christian Wisdom" is the title of a little book published by Sadlier & Co., which deserves all praise. The work is a perfect gem, or rather a mosaic of a thousand gems. It contains brief extracts from great Catholic writers and thinkers, collated by Lucien Henry, with a preface by Lady Herbert of Lea. Ask for the book and get it at once. "A book of this sort," says Lady Herbert, "is valuable as a means of fixing serious and beautiful truths in men's minds, being clothed in language which renders such thoughts imperishable."—Pilot.

This neatly printed little volume is exceedingly attractive, as a collection of beautiful and wise thoughts and sayings, illustrating over thirty subjects of a moral, religious, and admonitory nature, well calculated to elevate the mind to reflective activity, or calm it to the philosophy of faith; to strengthen it with wisdom and nurture it with truth. A brief preface by Lady Herbert of Lea, to whom it is dedicated, says all we might add in explanation of its contents: "It is embued with a thoroughly Catholic spirit, and will be very valuable to the student and general reader, and still more to the writers of serious books, as a dictionary of reference, which will spare the many hours of tedious research among scattered materials of thought."—Manhattan Monthly.

LITTLE CROWN OF ST. JOSEPH.

COMPILED AND TRANSLATED FROM APPROVED SOURCES

BY A

SISTER OF ST. JOSEPH.

---

1 Vol.	32mo.	Cloth, red edges	$1.00
"	"	Morocco, extra	2.00
"	"	Calf	2.50

We have here another choice collection of the familiar flowers of devotion, arranged (according to the felicitous comparison of St. Francis de Sales) in a freshly variegated posey, after the fashion of the skillful nosegay-maker Glycera, who, with the same flowers, could make bouquets of every description to please the different tastes of all. The various prayers in this little manual have been compiled with care from various sources. The morning and evening devotions are very brief, as is also our manner of hearing Mass. Another somewhat longer form of prayers for Mass consists of a series of meditations in union with Our Lady of Desolation. Devotions for confession and communion, and prayers for various occasions, are followed by devotions "to the Sacred Heart," "to the Five Wounds," to "Our Lady of the Sacred Heart," "to the Precious Blood," and many others. The principal portion of the work is necessarily devoted to St. Joseph. There are thirty-one visits, "a Novena," "Chaplet," and many other pious prayers and practices.—London Weekly Register.

This is a book of devotions, consisting partly of prayers and exercises; partly of methods of hearing Mass, and partly of methods of preparation for the sacraments, with relative or consequent meditations. It is well put together, and will be a very useful addition to the devotional library of all Catholics. It is convenient in form, and very legible in print; and, moreover, it contains some useful bits of information in regard of some "indulgenced" devotions.—Ibid.

Translated from the French by Mrs. J. Sadlier.

This little work, a compendium of a much larger one on the same subject, will, it is hoped, commend itself to the favor of all who desire to see the family maintain its rightful position as the centre and nucleus, as well as the nursery of Christian society. In an age like this, when the family—especially in this country—is threatened with dissolution, it is well that the people should be reminded what it really is, what it ought to be, and how important its integrity is to the well-being of society. All this and much more concerning it in its past as well as present state, is clearly and plainly set forth in this little book, which is published in the very cheapest form, in order to insure it the extensive circulation its importance deserves.

"We never had any doubts about the existence or the potency of his satanic majesty, and we presume there are very few good Catholics who have; but there are a great many people, even inside the pale of the Church, who regard possession by the devil as a disease which died out with the downfall of Judaism, and who, by their attendance at spiritual séances, table-turning parties, and even by their expressed belief in magnetism and consultation with fortune-tellers, seem to be totally oblivious of the potent fact that the prince of darkness has the heaviest hand on the electrified table, and shuffles the cards of the clairvoyant. Even if these performances could be explained on scientific principles or the art of jugglery, it is manifest that the impressions conveyed to the minds of those ignorant and stupid people who place faith in such necromantic science, are capital weapons in the hands of the arch-enemy of mankind to work its destruction. Let all such people read this excellent little book, and learn therefrom what the renuncio diabolum of their baptismal vows imposes upon them."—N. O. Star.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The Adventures of Sidney Flint," by the author of "Alice Harmon," is a very clever story from the press of Sadlier & Co., New York. This story is above the average of American novels—quite far above. The author takes his reader into strange scenes, but still they are scenes around us every day. The criminal secrets of New York, the ways of coiners and robbers, are strongly drawn, and the characters throughout are lifelike—which is saying a great deal for a modern story. The book will be read with interest.—Boston Pilot.

ALICE HARMON,

AND OTHER TALES.

BY AN EXILE OF ERIN.

THIRD EDITION.

One Vol. 16mo.	Cloth, extra	$1.25

"Alice Harmon abounds in beautiful descriptions of prominent points of Irish scenery. The plot opens in Ireland, but the scene is shifted to America, in the stirring days of the Rebellion, and the deeds of the gallant '69th' and its heroic colonel are not forgotten."—Catholic Record.

"Alice Harmon is a religious and national home tale, evidently written by one who is a sincere Catholic and an enthusiastic Irishman; but the brightness of religion and the glow of patriotism are at times overshadowed by dark lines of melancholy, arising from a sense of separation and exile. The story is clearly told, the conceptions clear, and there is a truthful simplicity running throughout which maintains the interest of the reader to the end."—Tablet.

"Although not aiming at any ambitious flight of romantic story, this little volume is pleasing, agreeably written, and will while away an idle hour by the interest it is sure to excite in the mind of the reader."—Baltimore Mirror.

"Alice Harmon is a very pleasing sketch of life and manners in Ireland at the present day. There is a fine healthy Catholic tone pervading its pages which is deserving of all praise, and is in admirable contrast with the mawkish sentimentality characterizing modern secular novels. The descriptions of some of the favorite Irish scenery, though by no means elaborate, are yet vivid enough to be attractive to all acquainted with the localities. The other storiette is also well written and worthy of commendation."—San Francisco Monitor.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

This book is more than a story. It is a series of historical sketches, showing the manners and customs of the different ages it describes, and depicting the fair land of France under the ancient Gauls, the Frankish soldiers of Charlemagne, the monks, the troubadours, down to the brave warriors of this century, the whole narrative written with ability and inspired by genuine faith.—N. O. Star.

This is a much more important little work than might, at first sight, be supposed. It is not exactly a story, and yet it possesses the attraction of a story, while giving, in the form of detached sketches, a picturesque glimpse of French history in its several phases from the days of Clovis, the first Christian King of France, to those of the great Emperor, Napoleon the First. The plan of the book is novel, and we should be glad to see it followed up by similar works illustrating the history of other countries besides France. As "The Old Chest" has appeared in a serial form in these columns, our readers are already well acquainted with its merits and demerits. It appears to us that the young translator has given a fair rendering of the original. We think that "The Old Chest" will be found very acceptable and very appropriate as a premium book for Catholic schools.—Tablet.

THE WONDERS OF LOURDES.

Translated from the French of Mgr. de Segur, by

ANNA T. SADLIER.

SIXTH EDITION.

One Vol. 24mo. Cloth, extra..... 60 cts.
Cloth, extra, gilt sides and edges 90 cts.

"This is an excellent little work, brought out in Messrs. Sadlier's best style. The visit of our American pilgrims to the holy shrine of Lourdes invests this little work with peculiar interest and attraction. The miraculous appearance of the Blessed Virgin to a poor little peasant girl is an incident of such great importance to the Church and world, that we are glad to find facts and proofs adduced in the work before us which certainly must confound heretics and doubters.

"It is fashionable, nowadays, for would-be philosophers and stoical revilers of sacred things to sneer at divine manifestations and religious ceremonies. The cures and miracles narrated in the work before us, as accomplished by the holy waters of Lourdes, are too well attested and sustained to be smothered by the sneers and anti-Catholic bigotry of revilers and unbelievers.

"The work is admirably translated, as can be plainly seen from the harmony of language and polished style of the translator. Every person who wants to know the true history of the miracles and manifestations at Lourdes should read this little work."—Sunday Democrat.

"To those who wish to learn anything in connection with the apparition of Our Lady at Lourdes, and the many cures effected at the spring since, and other valuable information relating thereto, we cheerfully recommend this little work."—Pittsburgh Catholic.

"The recent visit of American pilgrims to Lourdes excites an interest to know all about the place, and about 'Our Lady of Lourdes,' and this little volume gives information on the subject. Lourdes is a pretty little Pyrenees town, situated at the entrance of several mountain gorges, and not far from it is the sacred grotto which the pilgrims visited. Its history is briefly given, as also many of the cures which are related to have been effected. The grotto, to use the language of the book, was the place designated by Providence for the manifestation of the glory and goodness of the Blessed Virgin."—Portland Argus.

"There is almost fascination in every line of this little book. A mere narration of the astounding wonders, both physical and spiritual, which have been wrought at that little grotto close by the Pyrenees, would, of course, possess deep interest for all Catholics; but told in the charming English of Miss Sadlier's translation, it is irresistible in its appeal to the heart and in its pleadings for honor to the Mother of God. We feel certain that the book will obtain a large sale."—Tablet.

BRIEF OF HIS HOLINESS PIUS IX.,

TO THE AUTHOR OF

OUR LADY OF LOURDES.

To his beloved Son, Henri Lasserre,

PIUS IX., POPE:

BELOVED SON,—Salutation and the apostolic benediction. Receive our felicitations, very dear son. Having obtained some time since a most remarkable benefit, you have just accomplished scrupulously and with feelings of love, the vow you then made: you have just employed your best efforts, in proving and establishing the truth of the recent Apparition of the most clement Mother of God and this you have done in such a manner that the very struggle of human malice against the divine mercy serves but to bring out more forcibly the luminous evidence of the fact!

In the explanation you have afforded of events, the progress and dependence on each other, all men may perceive clearly and with certitude how our most holy religion tends towards and results in the true advantage of all people: how it heaps on all those who have recourse to it, gifts not only of a celestial and spiritual, but also of a temporal and terrestrial nature. They will be able to see how, even in the absence of all material force, this religion is all-powerful for the maintenance of order: how, amid excited multitudes, it can restrain within just bounds the anger and indignation, however justified, of exasperated minds. They will be able to see lastly how the Clergy co-operate by their loyal efforts and zeal towards the attainments of such results, and how, far from encouraging superstition, they display infinitely more deliberation and severity of investigation than any other class of men, when it is a question of pronouncing judgment with reference to facts which seemingly surpass the ordinary powers of nature.

Your narrative, in no less luminous a manner, will render manifest the following truth—that impiety declares war against religion entirely in vain, and that the attempts of the wicked to hamper the divine counsels of Providence by human machinations are utterly unavailing, the perversity of men and their criminal audacity serving, on the contrary, as a means, in the hands of Providence, to confer on its works more power and splendor.

Such are the reasons which have induced us to receive with the most lively joy your work entitled: Our Lady of Lourdes. We firmly believe that She who, from every quarter, attracts towards Herself by miracles of her power and goodness, multitudes of Pilgrims, wills, in the same manner, to employ your book in order to propagate more widely, and to excite towards Herself, the piety and confidence of mankind, to the end that all may participate in the plenitude of Her graces As a pledge of the success we predict for your work, receive our apostolic benediction, which we address to you very affectionately, as a testimony of our gratitude and paternal benevolence.

Given at Rome, at St. Peter's, 4th September, 1869, in the year of our Pontificate XXIV

SADLIER & CO.'S NEW PUBLICATIONS.

A Book for every Reader of Irish History.

THE FATE AND FORTUNES
OF
O'NEILL AND O'DONNEL,
EARLS OF TYRONE AND TYRCONNEL;

Their Flight from Ireland; their Vicissitudes abroad; and their Death in Exile.

BY THE REV. C. P. MEEHAN, M.R.I.A.

ILLUSTRATED WITH FOUR SPLENDID STEEL ENGRAVINGS.

1 vol. 12mo, cloth, extra, $2.00.

This work forms a noble addition to Irish literature, and has been received with unusual encomiums by the European Press. Father Meehan has brought to his task all the fervent patriotism and antiquarian research which his great theme demanded, and has given to the public a work without which no library can be complete. He adds to the story of Tyrone and Tyrconnel all the charms which genius, research and composition can give to this page of Irish history, and his book is one which every student of Irish literature will love to linger over. This edition is illustrated with four elegant Engravings on steel, of Hugh O'Neill, O'Sullivan Beare, most Rev. Peter Lombard, Archbishop of Armagh, and Bishop Florence Conry taken from the original Portraits in the galleries of Italy and Spain.

Extracts from Opinions of the Press.

"We do not know which is the most to be admired in this work, the amount of information which has been put together from a variety of hidden sources, or the excellent narrative with which it is woven into a history. To throw State paper documents and crabbed old letters into order is not a very difficult matter, but to give them the freshness of a tale, the charm of a romance, and the pathos of the drama, requires no little talent. We freely accord the Rev. Author the praise of having done this, and having composed a book of such unpromising materials which carries the reader along with him to the last page. The "Fate and Fortunes" is not merely the record of the dim setting of the sun of Irish freedom, it is not merely a faithful account of the last days of two of her bravest and most unfortunate sons, it is not merely a farewell account of the last of the Irish chieftains; but it is a circumstantial history which maps out the events preceding and accompanying the plantation of Ulster, with a grace and liveliness which can be given only by the most exalted details of the social and political state of Ireland at that period."—London Weekly Register.

"The Rev. Mr. Meehan is no mere compiler of books. In the language in which Curran portrayed the duties of the narrator of facts and men long past, he must discharge equally the office of the historian and the witness; and, whilst he takes up the task of the one and continues it, the Rev. Mr. Meehan, with impartial justice, and upon unimpeachable evidence, appears in the character of the other. With a feeling and sentiment in his work that shows his self-denying interest for its success, the Rev. Mr Meehan speaks of this great work in his preface as a "page of Irish history." We dispute the correctness of such a term. This book is more. It is a volume in Irish history, and a volume not to be reached by any less laborious, any less able, any less enthusiastic lover of the glorious illustrations of Irish history than the Rev. Mr Meehan."—Dublin Irishman.

This is a handsomely printed work, containing the cream of the varied learning and brilliant thoughts of the lamented Henry Giles. If not the most popular, Mr. Giles was unquestionably one of the most sparkling and versatile of the grand galaxy of literati which Ireland gave to America. There were few subjects which his philosophical mind did not fathom and his brilliant fancy illuminate and make attractive. Few of our public men better understood the light and shadow of Irish character, or could touch off its idiosyncracies with a readier pen. His style is Irish to the core; ready wit, quiet humor, glowing imagination, graceful fancy, subtle reasoning, and philosophical thought. Whether he treats of O'Connell or Goldsmith, Curran or Dr. Doyle, Gerald Griffin or Irish Character, we are equally edified and pleased, and reluctantly push the tempting viands from us hoping that we may soon have an opportunity of returning to the feast.—San Francisco Daily Monitor.

LECTURES AND ESSAYS. By Henry Giles. (New York: D. & J. Sadlier & Co.) The popular veteran lecturer, Giles has here collected the discourses which from time to time drew and gratified so many of his audiences all over the country. They were chiefly addressed to Irish audiences, who warmly appreciated their singular ability of wit, humor, and eloquence—his sketches of Daniel O'Connell, John Philpot Curran, Oliver Goldsmith, Gerald Griffin, &c., ranking among the most attractive essays of the kind, and exciting an interest which does not grow out of date with the lapse of years. This handsome volume contains a great amount of popular entertainment and information, and would be a good book in any library. It has a portrait of the author.—New York Daily Times.

This is, perhaps, the best work, as regards typographical merit, ever issued by the Sadlier firm. It exhibits a faithful likeness of Henry Giles. Mr. Giles was, undoubtedly, THE PRINCE OF LECTURERS. None ever had a quicker or clearer conception of the subject chosen to lecture upon. Mr. Giles has the gift of comprehension; he takes hold of the salient points, either in history or in the character of a man, and says all that can be said. Indeed, there is no appeal from Henry Giles' judgment in the topics he discusses. For, after one has listened to, or has read one of his lectures, he must needs feel, not carried away, but thoroughly convinced of the truth of what the lecturer has undertaken to prove. Mr. G., more than any other, could hold an audience spell-bound. What with a clear perspicuity of intellect, an ardent soul, and an impassioned delivery, he was unrivalled. Alas! we shall hear him, perhaps, no more. He was the student and the scholar—and great at that. These LECTURES AND ESSAYS will be read and appreciated as long as there will remain a spark of love for the best written English works. What a pity that such a man should pass away uninspired by Catholic consolation!—Boston Pilot.

This work, which is now being canvased for in this city by James P. Flynn, should command a large sale among that portion of the inhabitants of our city whom it particularly interests. The Lectures and Essays here given to the public are among the finest efforts of the genius of Henry Giles. None of the contents of this volume have ever before been published in book form. The many thousands who have had the privilege of hearing Mr. Giles discourse on "Spirit of Irish History," "Irish Wit and Humor," "Irish Character, Mental and Moral," "Ireland and the Irish," "Irish-born Citizens," "Irish Emigration," "Daniel O'Connell," or "John Philpot Curran," will be glad of the opportunity of having those noble lectures by them for frequent perusal. So, too, with the Essays on "Doctor Doyle," "Oliver Goldsmith," and "Wit and Humor in Scotland," written for a Boston periodical; many will be pleased to have them in a more permanent form.—*Providence (R. THE IRISH IN AMERICA.

BY JOHN FRANCIS MAGUIRE, M.P. FOR CORK,

AUTHOR OF "ROME AND ITS RULER," "LIFE OF FATHER MATHEW," ETC.

This excellent work has just been published simultaneously in London and New York. Being the result of close observation on the part of its Author during his recent American tour, it can be relied upon as a just and impartial view of the condition, prospects and position of the Irish race in America. It is written with all the terseness and vigor which characterize Mr Maguire's works, and will command a very large sale. By the English and Irish Press it has been received with universal commendation.

One Volume, cloth, extra, 653 pp., $2.00.

Extracts from Opinions of the Press.

"The civil war, whatever else it did, improved to a very remarkable extent the position of the Irish in America: that is to say, of the Catholic Irish. Mr. Maguire does not overrate this. In the American mind the Irish approved themselves worthy and valuable citizens in an American cause, and not merely as against England. An opportunity was gained for rising into public notice and esteem without the intervention of politicians, and the result was that Catholics and Irishmen did succeed in placing themselves in prominent positions as American citizens, and in vanquishing a great deal of the remaining prejudice against them. Mr. Maguire knows how to make a telling book, and although his enthusiasm carries him sometimes beyond sober limits, it unconsciously proves the main argument of his work; for clearly he would not have grown enthusiastic over those who had shamed his country."—London Chronicle.

"What we recommend every one is to procure the work and read it for himself, and those persons who find it expensive ought to club together and purchase a copy between them, taking in turns to read it. It is a work which cannot be praised too highly at the present crisis, and which no Catholic, no Irishman, and no politician, whatever his creed may be, ought to be without. Mr. Maguire has a right to be proud of his book."—London Weekly Register.

"He appears to have investigated his subject with unusual thoroughness, if not with absolute impartiality; and the result is a work of very great interest and value, different from any other book of travels in America that we remember to have read. Its fluency and wealth of words are extraordinary. It is very pleasantly written, and abounds in information which is peculiarly valuable at the present moment. One of the most interesting parts of Mr. Maguire's volume is his picture of the self-devotion and energy of the Catholic Priests in supplying the wants of their co-religionists, and laboring to keep them within the fold."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"The testimony of the writer is the more valuable as to the power and influence of the Irish in America, because he is known as an earnest, able thinker, who never allows imagination to lend a false color to facts which come under his observation, and who never arrives at a conclusion without looking at both sides of the question with rigid impartiality. * * * * We hope to give our readers some examples of the value and importance of this truly valuable book."—Dublin Irishman.

"More than one motive influenced Mr. Maguire to visit America, as he tells us in his preface. He wanted to see what the Irish were doing there—to understand the real value of labor as applied to the cultivation of the soil and development of the country, even when separated from capital. The result of his impressions he has given freely and without disguise."—London Universe.

"As Mr. Maguire employed a good deal of care and time to inform himself on his special subject, and made it a point to have access to those who could best inform him, his work cannot fail to be full of interesting facts and anecdotes."—N. Y. Irish Citizen.

Catholic Churches,

PRACTICAL ESSAYS

ON

Ventilation, Heating, Adaptability, and Acoustics.

By CHARLES SHOLL.

This work has been completed and designed by a professional Architect, of large experience both in Europe and America, who has of late years turned his attention exclusively to Ecclesiastical Architecture. When completed it will contain Ten complete Designs for cheap Churches, costing from $2,000 to $25,000, and respectively seating from 256 to 1,000 adults and a proportionate number of children. We can guarantee that each Church will be a correct type of the style adopted in every detail.

Designs E, I, and K are intended for congregations of ample means, as the MATERIAL adopted, and the GENERAL FINISH, is of an expensive character.

" K	Stone.	Florid Gothic, Spire.	1000 "	72 "

We have been called on repeatedly by numbers of the Right Rev'd Clergy to furnish a work of this description, and have been prevented up to this time by our inability to find a person qualified to do justice to so important a subject. By the admission of experienced architects, the work is now such as will stand the severest criticisms. We therefore address ourselves especially to this body to encourage our efforts in developing a true spirit of Catholic Architecture throughout the land.

These Designs have been submitted to the Most Rev'd Archbishops of New York and Halifax, and the Right Rev. Bishop of Charleston, the two latter of whom were in the city, who have kindly furnished us with the following

APPROBATIONS.

NEW YORK, March 1, 1869.

MESSRS. D. & J. SADLIER & Co.,—Your project of publishing a series of Designs for Catholic Churches, accompanied by Working Plans and Specifications, prepared by a competent Architect, is one which meets my hearty approval, and which, when accomplished, will, I think, be very useful to the Rev. Clergy, especially in localities where such designs, combining taste with economy, cannot easily be procured. Wishing for your enterprise the ample patronage it merits, I remain, dear sirs, your most obedient servant,

JOHN, ARCHBISHOP OF NEW YORK.

HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA, April 12, 1869.

DEAR SIRS,—I have examined with deepest interest your first series of Designs for the construction of Catholic Churches of every size and order of Architecture, and it is simply true to say, that this work, so auspiciously commenced, has my heartiest approbation.

The want of such a practical book on Catholic Architecture for the last twenty years, in the remote dioceses and country parishes of the United States and elsewhere in America, has cost the Catholic population of this Continent, I am sure, many millions of dollars without any commensurate result.

In the present work, Bishops and Priests not having access to a first-class Architect, often within a circuit of many hundred miles, are always sure of finding a first-class Plan and all information regarding site, cost, details, etc., etc., etc. Moreover, instead of having to depend on the ever limited resources of any single Architect, they will have, as it were, a boundless variety of Designs and most valuable suggestions to choose from, as will appear best suited to the wants and resources of each locality, and the true character and magnitude of the work on hand. With this expression of my humble views on this most important and useful work, I am, dear sirs, very respectfully yours,

THOMAS L. CONNOLLY, ARCHBISHOP OF HALIFAX.

D. & J. SADLIER & Co.

MESSRS. D. & J. SADLIER,—Gentlemen: It is with exceeding pleasure that I learn you have undertaken the publication of a series of designs for Churches, to be erected at moderate cost; and still further, that to those detailed designs and drawings, you will unite clear and complete specifications, all drawn up by a skillful and experienced Architect. Such a work will be truly a benefit, as by it, miscalculations, errors, omissions, etc., which vex the soul of whoever undertakes the erection of a Church, may in great measure be avoided. P. S.—Please send me four copies as soon as ready. Respectfully, your obedient servant,

P. N. LYNCH, BISHOP OF CHARLESTON, S. C.

BISHOP'S HOUSE, NEWARK, June 10, 1869.

Having examined the Series of Architectural Designs and Plans for Churches, about to be published by the Messrs. SADLIER, I agree in the above approval and recommendation. I remain, very truly yours,

J. ROOSEVELT BAYLEY, BISHOP OF NEWARK.

ST. PAUL, MINN., Jan. 25, 1869.

DEAR SIRS,—I am rejoiced to hear of your project, viz.: the issuing "Ten Working Designs for Catholic Churches" containing details, specifications, figured dimensions, etc, and that you have found a man equal to the task. I have no doubt as to your being fully remunerated for your labor and outlay. Let me express the hope that the Architect will have an eye to the requirements of the taste and style of our times and country. You may put me down as subscriber to the amount of four copies. Faithfully yours, THOMAS, BISHOP OF ST. PAUL.

D. & J. SADLIER & Co., New York.

Trifling modifications will enable any other Christian denomination to use these designs, and adapt them to their different form of worship.

The number printed must depend on the extent of subscriptions. The edition will be strictly limited to a few copies beyond the list; it will be impossible to obtain it hereafter except at an advanced rate. Subscribers should therefore send in their names immediately.

The Rt. Rev. Bishops and Clergy who feel the want of this long-desired book, will therefore be kind enough to correspond with us at once, to avoid disappointment which all will regret.

Although they have labored for thirty years to increase the libraries of Catholic Churches and families with valuable works, the publishers feel convinced that they have never offered a book that will prove of greater service to both Clergy and people, and consequently to the Church at large.

The work is large folio, containing 45 plates, 75 pages of letter-press, and is finished in the best style, on toned paper, and partially illuminated. Folio size, 20 × 14. Price $15. Sent by Mail or Express on receipt of price. Half Mor. beveled and gilt edges $20.

THE ADVENTURES OF A PROTESTANT IN SEARCH OF A RELIGION.

By IOTA.

One Vol. 16mo. Cloth, beveled boards, ornamental gilt sides..... $1.50
——————— Cloth, gilt..... 2.00

"No two men seem to be led to the truth by the same road, and hence it comes to pass that every conversion is a study by itself, and a special revelation of God's dealing with souls. It is this fact which lends an interest to this history of a Protestant's adventures in search of a religion beyond that which it would possess as a mere story. It is a narrative of the trials and searchings, the lights and darknesses, of one who, led by invisible grace, gropes his way from the furthest outpost of error, as manifested by extreme Calvinism, up to the very citadel of eternal truth. It is a long and painful journey, and the writer has succeeded well in the design he had in view when he essayed to give us an account of his hero's steps through the maze. . . .

"Taking it as a whole, we have liked the work exceedingly. It is well written, and the interest of the story well kept up. It will form a valuable addition to every Catholic library, and be read with interest by both Catholics and non-Catholics. Nor should we be surprised to hear that through its perusal many another Protestant will have been helped in his search after a religion."—London Tablet.

"This, as its title imports, is a controversial tale; but it is also what its name does not import, a story of more than ordinary merit of its kind, both in beauty of sentiment and grace of composition. It has none of the childish wishy-washiness which too often characterizes doctrinal tales. The author, in a truly beautiful and instructive preface, explains the scope of the work as follows: 'We attempt in these pages to exhibit some of the workings of a mind that may be taken as the type of a large class of young, thoughtful, studious men of the day, who having had instilled into their minds the divine right of private judgment, as the phrase is, have determined to shape out their own course of thought, cast off the prejudices of their education, and adopt as their motto for life, "Every man his own creed-maker."' Of course, the author is himself a convert, and therefore abundantly able to compose such a work in even a far more satisfactory manner than one to the manner born, and therefore happily ignorant of that unblissful gift, a mind working with religious fermentation.—Catholic Record.

"The book he has given us is the well-told tale of the trials, the struggles, the difficulties through which one particular mind made its way from the darkness of doubt and uncertainty in Protestant negation into the regions of eternal truth and assured trust in the full light of Catholic faith and Catholic dogma. It is told as a story, and is indeed more deeply interesting than any mere story, yet it has in it no factitious aids from fiction, no meretricious adornment of any kind."—New York Tablet.

The BEST and CHEAPEST EDITION

OF THE

LIFE OF BLESSED MARGARET MARY,

A Religious of the Visitation of St. Mary, embracing a History of the Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

BY REV. GEORGE TICKELL, S. J.

One Vol. 16mo. Cloth, extra..... $1.25
——————— Cloth, gilt..... 1.75

The above edition is published at nearly one-half the price of previous works on this subject that have been issued, while it is at the same time the most complete Life before the public.

"Although several lives of the singularly favored Visitandine, Blessed Margaret Mary, have been given to the world, in various countries and in various languages, at different times, yet this work of Father Tickell seems pre-eminently suited to the wants of the present time, and the rapidly-growing devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. It is so simply, yet so gracefully written, so full, from beginning to end, of the loving, tender spirit which our dear Lord Jesus Christ breathed into the heart and soul of Blessed Margaret Mary, so redolent of the unction of divine grace, and, withal, so attractive in the simple beauty of the marvelous story, that it is truly a charming book to read. Nothing can be more appropriate for a premium book for Catholic schools than this new and beautiful life of the meek and humble daughter of St. Francis de Sales, who was chosen by Our Divine Lord to make His Sacred Heart known and loved by men. It is well printed and handsomely bound."—Tablet.

"The spread of devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is one of the wonders of the present age, and is the great spiritual force in opposition to the prevailing indifferentism. A biography, therefore, of the gifted and favored woman who, in a certain sense, originated it must be of surpassing interest to all devout Catholics. Father Tickell's book is admirably written, and shows in every page the handiwork of one in deepest sympathy with his subject. To the weak in faith this volume may, perhaps, be a stumbling block; but to those who have conquered love of the world, and know the beauties of spiritual life, it cannot but be a consolation and an encouragement."—San Francisco Monitor.

"According to a prefatory notice, this work is based upon 'The Memoir of her own Life, written by Blessed Margaret Mary herself at the wish of her Director, Father Rolin, S. J., and on the Life written by the Religious of Paray le-Monial, her contemporaries.'

"The author also acknowledges his obligations to 'The Life of Blessed Margaret Mary, by Pere Daniel, S. J., and the assistance he has received from the Religious of the Visitation of the Monastery of Westbury.'

"The sources from which Father Tickell obtained the materials for his work are a guarantee of its accuracy. The details of her life, and particularly of those connected with the institution of the Devotion to the Sacred Heart, are given with great clearness and fulness. As the author justly remarks, 'Blessed Margaret Mary appears to hold the same place with regard to the Feast of the Sacred Heart which is held by Blessed Juliana in regard to the Feast of Corpus Christi. It was to Margaret Mary that the revelation was made by Our Blessed Lord enjoining the establishment of the Feast, and it is from the particulars of this revelation that we are to draw our knowledge of the design Our Lord had in view in instituting it, and of the distinctive character of the Devotion which is in a manner embodied in it.'

"This of itself is sufficient to give to the Life of Blessed Margaret Mary prominence and interest, and will doubtless cause it to be in great request among all who practice the Devotion to the Sacred Heart."—Catholic Standard.

Catholicity and Pantheism:

ALL TRUTH OR NO TRUTH.

AN ESSAY,

BY REV. J. DE CONCILIO.

1 Vol. 12mo. Cloth, extra.....$2.00

A FORMAL introduction of this work is, no doubt, superfluous, in face of the high reputation as a theologian enjoyed by the author, the Rev. J. De Concilio. Suffice it to say that, in "Catholicity and Pantheism," he has done all that could have been expected, and that is much. He has presented an old subject in a new light; he has handled the grand old arguments of the Catholic Church with novel dexterity, and he has massed his forces on the whole army of heresies and false systems of philosophy with wonderful tact. Tearing aside the flimsy trappings of Protestantism, and laying bare the ambitious forms of modern philosophy, he holds up to our gaze the naked figure of Pantheism;—Pantheism, that under one guise or another, has ever been the absorbing error of mankind; Pantheism that has ever been the insidious foe of Catholicity in all nations and in all times; hence, the watchword that sounds through the pages of this book, "Catholicity or Pantheism; all truth or no truth; life or death."

"THIS monstrous evil, Pantheism, being the natural enemy of Catholic truth, our author has attempted to refute it, by showing the internal beauty of Catholicity, a form of controversy and a means of carrying conviction which he believes to be peculiarly adapted to the requirements of the day. His work is profound and trustworthy."—Philadelphia Catholic Record.

LIFE OF FATHER MATHEW,

THE PEOPLE'S SOGGARTH AROON.

BY

SISTER MARY FRANCIS CLARE.

1 Vol. 16mo. Cloth.....$1.00
" Paper covers.....$0.50

Though the life of Father Mathew has been several times written, we are not aware of a life of that great and true philanthropist, which chronicles his interesting and useful history in a concise form, suitable to the scant leisure for reading which this busy age allots to most people. The well known and prolific "Nun of Kenmare," has produced just this convenient digest of the life of the "Apostle of Temperance," and Messrs. Sadlier & Co. have gotten it out in neat and tasteful style. Those who have not read the life of Father Mathew, have yet in store for them a great pleasure in the story of his heroic battle against Intemperance. Members of Temperance Societies are supposed to be already familiar with the life of their coryphæus, but nevertheless, as a chronicle of his life, short and pleasant to read, and well fitted to lend to their non-temperance neighbors, no society should be without some copies of this work.

"Father Mathew is a racy, fresh, life-like picture of a valiant, devoted, public-spirited man, a man of broad sympathies and full of keen Irish wit. O'Connell's influence is fading away, with every year, but the hold that Father Mathew has upon the Irish heart deepens as fast. He saw the great moral weakness of his race to be love of drink, and he struck at it like a man."—Penn. Monthly.

1 Vol. 16mo. (Uniform with the first of this series, "Jesus and Jerusalem.") Cloth, extra.....$1.50

"'Daily Steps to Heaven,' like its predecessors in the same series, is a book of spiritual readings, written in that easy, graceful style with which the former works of the author have happily made us so familiar. It embraces a wide range of subjects, all of them most important, and all so skillfully treated, that the fund of thought suggested by them seems to grow inexhaustible the further we proceed through the volume."—London Weekly Register.

"The extraordinary author whose facile pen has ranged over fields the most widely apart, and, in the field of devotion, not less than in those of history and of fiction, laid her claim to grateful remembrance by numerous works differing widely in kind and in degree, has just added to her series of books for spiritual reading this remarkable volume. Its title must attract those souls who, on the narrow way of life, are yearning for the 'kindly light' which will make more certain their steps towards their heavenly destination. For these willing souls the good Nun makes plain in this book, the various steps by which they may accomplish their task She traverses with them the steps of 'desire,' of 'contrition,' of 'confession,' of 'faith,' and thus on, through every agency which a merciful Providence sends to our help on our weary pilgrimage. The volume ends appropriately with that 'step through the gates of pearl,' which its whole tenor reminds us we shall never take, unless we have taken, in love and hope, each step which is here so well described for us."—Tablet.

HORNEHURST RECTORY.

A NOVEL.

BY

SISTER MARY FRANCIS CUSACK.

2 Vols in one 12mo.....$2.50

"THE versatility of this lady's literary talents is now fully proven; she is as much at home in writing fiction as in history or biography, and Hornehurst Rectory is a gem of its class. The authoress has been most successful in the attainment of her purpose of exhibiting, in a true light, the hollowness of the 'Evangelical,' 'Broad Church,' and other popular religious 'systems.' She particularly develops the weakness of the Ritualistic movement, in its efforts to carry on its so-called conventual establishment, in one of which the authoress herself was a 'sister,' before her conversion to Catholicity.

"She then paints in strong but delicately shaded colors the beauties of the one true faith, contrasting with the failure of the denominational systems its power to alone touch the heart and satisfy the cravings of the soul for those best and perfect gifts, 'coming down from the Father of light.' The pathos of the book is simple yet most touching, while the humor with which it is so finely blended, is always refined and inoffensive, though the significant names of some of the characters would be more appropriate to a satire than in a standard novel. It is decidedly 'a tale of the times,' and it is perhaps not too much to say, that it approaches nearer to the immortal Comedy of Convocation than any work of its kind that has yet appeared. The bold and handsome type, heavy tinted paper, and neat style of binding, indicate that the publishers have done their part towards giving it a permanent and prominent place in our libraries.—Catholic Record.

Extracts from Notices of the Press.

In preparing her biography of O'Connell, Sister Mary Cusack seems to have abundantly availed herself of the material afforded by the events of that exciting period of Irish history. Many new facts are brought forward, and much additional light is thrown on events of which we had but a partial knowledge. Coming from an Irish Catholic and a Religious, we were led to expect, in the present biography, a certain amount of bias in favor of the hero who had labored so effectually for Ireland and the Catholic cause, but we were disappointed. While it is true that we find no colors wanting to correctly portray the virtues and merits of the subject, neither do we discover any false shades thrown to conceal his defects. The Life of Daniel O'Connell, as presented to the public by the "Nun of Kenmare," is a complete and impartial history of the public and private life of a great political reformer, who was gifted with rare talents, was animated by the generous, religious, and patriotic impulse of his Irish nature, was active, energetic, self-willed, at times overzealous, and while possessing more than the average amount of good qualities as a man, was not altogether without faults. The work is written in a learned, graceful style, and is exceedingly interesting, both as a biography of O'Connell and as a history of the times in which he lived.—Catholic Record.

THE IRISH ON THE PRAIRIES,

AND OTHER POEMS.

BY REV. THOMAS AMBROSE BUTLER.

1 Vol. 12mo. Cloth, extra.....$1.50

"This unpretending volume contains some really good popular poetry. It is chiefly on Irish subjects, and breathes the purest and warmest Irish feeling, in patriotism, in home affections, in religion. All the verses are singularly musical. The principal poem, The Irish on the Prairies, we especially recommend to our Irish readers. It is full of deep pathos, fresh and vigorous in tone, and eminently graphic in its pictures of Irish rural life, not only in the Old Land, but in our Far West. Some of the minor poems are very good, and the songs, at the end of the volume, written to well-known airs, are likely to become favorites in Irish households everywhere."—Tablet.

"A tasteful little volume, containing the poetical effusions of an Irish priest well known and beloved, and possessed of a high order of feeling and imagination. Some of his poems have already appeared in the Dublin Nation, above the nom de plume of 'Eblana;' others have more recently been published in the New York Emerald; but many of them are now for the first time given to the public. They will be found characterized by great purity of sentiment, and show the author to be a man of true poetic gifts."—St. Louis Times.

The Tithe Proctor,

A NOVEL.

BY WILLIAM CARLETON.

1 Vol. 12mo. Cloth, extra.....$1.50

"This work is founded on fact, and gives a vivid picture of a certain phase of Irish life and manners as they were some forty years ago. It is one of the most intensely dramatic of its author's many stories, and as it has been out of print here for some time, its publication in its present form will doubtless prove welcome to the admirers of Carleton."—Boston Daily Globe.

"This is a story of unusual power and truth, founded upon unquestionable facts, a clear synopsis of which precedes the romancist's creation. The subject, that of cruel tithe exaction in Ireland, is now happily of the past, but Carleton has avoided exaggeration."—Phila. Press.

GERALD MARSDALE;

OR,

THE OUT-QUARTERS OF ST. ANDREW'S PRIORY.

A Tale of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth.

BY MRS. STANLEY CAREY.

1 Vol. 16mo. Cloth, extra..... $1.25
——— Cloth, full gilt..... 1.75

The scene of this story is laid in the wild and picturesque region on the southern coast of Cornwall, is very prettily written and has sufficient variety of incidents and of love's unsmooth roads, traveled with courage and constancy almost amounting to martyrdom, to insure its eager perusal by the lovers of pure fiction. And when the end comes they will all be rejoiced to know that Gerald at last is able to bear off the prize for which he so long struggled—Sir Algernon's daughter.

"This is a tale of the reign of Queen Elizabeth of England. A period which tried men's souls. It is well written and conveys to the reader in an agreeable and attractive form the many trials that the faithful had to undergo during the persecuting reign of Elizabeth."—Pittsburgh Catholic.

"This is an interesting tale descriptive of life in the reign of Elizabeth, and is of course well supplied with incidents only too common to the career of noted parsonages of that age. It is well and pleasingly written, and cannot fail to win popular favor."—Western Times.

"This is a tale of more than usual interest. The story hinges mainly upon the fortunes of two families—one a Catholic, the other a Conformist. In the course of the story the cruel nature of the penal laws against Catholics in those days of persecution are well brought out. The individuality of the different characters, a Jesuit Priest, a Catholic gentleman and his lovely daughter, a dissipated and treacherous nephew, who basely betrayed them, but afterwards repented, a Protestant magistrate and land-holder and his two sons, one of whom became a Catholic, are all brought out. The tale is well written, and maintains its interest to the end."—Philadelphia Standard.

FOR HUSKS, FOOD.

By the Author of "Lascine."

One Vol. 12mo. Cloth, extra..... $1.50

The proceeds of this volume will be devoted to St. Stephen's Home for Destitute Children, Twenty-eighth Street, New York, in charge of the Sisters of Charity.

"Another work from the author of Lascine. Like his first, it is a work of genius: of genius consecrated to the God of Charity and Truth. For Husks, Food, will be read by thousands with delight, with ever-increasing advantage to mind and heart, long after its youthful author, amore Christi percitus, shall have laid the last stone of the temple he is building, and will have heard from the Lord of the temple: 'Well done: enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.'

"Such thoughts as fill his pages are born of the very fountain of divine love and eternal truth. If we speak in warm commendation, we only echo what able judges have not shrunk from saying. As regards beauty of style, elegance, and delicacy of sentiment, grandeur and elevation of thought, &c., 'Lascine is a noble book—elevating duty beyond love and riches and earthly fame.' For Husks, Food, is even a greater book, handling more difficult, absorbing topics. The argument on the still vexed question of Anglican Ordination, pp. 89–108, is the most succinct and convincing we have yet read to prove on what a sandstone foundation stands the haughty structure of Episcopalianism wherever it exists, in England, India, or America.

"The episode, if we may call it so, of Bernard Howard and Nina Harcourt will awaken in many a pure, generous spirit the same heavenward longings that wrung from the soul of the great Augustine the truth so often quoted, so widely admired, and, by the world's worshippers, so constantly forgotten: 'Our hearts, O Lord! have been created for Thee, and they shall never rest until they rest in Thee.'

"To that peace of mind which surpasseth all understanding, we have not a doubt the perusal of this work will lead many who are now far from it. Let them entreat Him who is ever ready to give His good Spirit to them who ask for it the same love of truth; the same resolute will to obtain at any cost the priceless treasure; above all, the same Christ-like mind in our intercourse with our fellow-men, and we may all not so often forget St. Augustine's words: 'There are more ways than one of sacrificing to the fallen angels.'"—Confes. B. iv., c. xvii.—Baltimore Mirror.

"A singular title for a book the reader will say, and say truly, and yet, having read the book through, the title is found to be strangely applicable and most expressive. It is, indeed, a rare book, abounding in sweet and salutary thoughts, gracefully expressed, and redolent of the delicious fragrance of Christian poetry, although meant for prose. The story is a very simple one, merely intended, as one can see, for the better understanding of the author's thought, viz., the exceeding beauty, the inestimable value, of self-denial, as a Christian virtue."—Tablet.

* * * * * * * "The talented author of 'Lascine,' an Oxford convert, has evidently lived and been brought up in the atmosphere of Ritualism, and discourses Catholicity as if it were but a whit different from Anglicanism and in its essence almost identical with it. He regards Anglicanism as 'a novitiate of the Catholic Church; and the unconscious instrument in the hands of God by which many earnest souls are lead to the true field of the Catholic Church.' 'She is a poor, desolate vineyard, but still a vineyard of the Lord; desolate, but not wholly barren. Here and there are a few vines unwithered, a few rich flowers blossoming with freedom stretching upward to the light above.' 'Have not a Newman, a Manning, and thousands of other heroic souls found within her pale the path that leads to unity?' There are many beautiful descriptions and interesting passages in the book, all of which bear the seal of high æsthetic culture. We commend the work to the perusal of every Catholic interested in the conflict of souls in their passage over the narrow bridge of Ritualism, from the cheerless confines of Protestant heresy, to the peace and joys of Catholicity."—The Guardian.

A BOOK OF THRILLING INTEREST.

THE

O'Donnells of Glen Cottage.

A TALE OF THE FAMINE YEARS IN IRELAND.

BY D. P. CONYNGHAM, LL.D.

1 Vol. 16mo. Cloth, extra, Gold and Ink Designs $1.50
——— Cloth, extra, full gilt, pattern gilt edges..... 2.00

"The 'Famine Years' of Ireland are rich in material for dramatic and pathetic writing; and the mine is pretty extensively worked. The book before us is an interesting story, based on the unjust execution of the brothers McCormack some years ago, in Tipperary, for the murder of Mr. Ellis. The scene of the story is laid in Tipperary, and the author with great skill winds up the reader's interest in his descriptions of the victories of Lord Clearall and the suffering of the starving peasantry."—Boston Pilot.

"It is an intensely national and Catholic story, and exactly mirrors the author's Irish and religious feelings. It is an historical novel, which at once gives an exhibit of Irish peasant life, details the horrors of the famine years, and presents the frightful tragedy in which the Cormacks were legally murdered. In 'The O'Donnells of Glen Cottage' there are scenes as dark as the depth of midnight, and the writer has artfully managed to conjure up from the elasticity of the Irish spirit, and the warmth of the Irish heart, combinations as bright as noonday. These scenes, both of shadow and sunshine, are interwoven so naturally that they succeed each other as night succeeds day, and day night. Throughout the whole there runs a silver thread which shines in the light and remains unbroken through darkness."—New York Tablet.

"This is really an interesting novel of Irish life. The plot is good, and the situations most interesting. Here and there are true touches of real, veritable Irish humor, that show the author's hand to the manner born. In not a few scenes we find pathos—not of the sensational kind, indeed—but of that healthful feeling which makes us akin with the purest sympathies of humanity."—Baltimore Mirror.

"The author of the above work, Mr. Conyngham, is a gentleman of much versatility. He has written successfully of historico-military affairs in the past and the present, of historico-political affairs, and of historico-theological affairs. All this is very considerable; and he now portrays one of the most terrible events in history, the Irish famine, and we can have no doubt it will be his greatest success. He is well acquainted with all the gradations of that prodigious calamity, and the reader, we may feel sure, will find himself presented with the most vivid pictures of an occurrence with which every Irish mind should be familiar. There should be very extensive sale of this work."—Western Watchman.

The Attention of Canvassers is invited to the following Popular Works Published by us in Numbers.

NEW AND ELEGANT
ILLUSTRATED WORKS,

Published with the Approbation of the Late Most Rev. JOHN HUGHES, and the Most Rev. JOHN McCLOSKEY, Archbishop of New York.

THE LIVES AND TIMES OF THE ROMAN PONTIFFS. From St. Peter to Pius IX. Translated from the French of Chevalier D'Artaud de Montor. Edited by Dr. Neligan. Published with the approbation of the Most Rev. John McCloskey, Archbishop of New York.

This important work—the only Catholic Lives of the Popes in the English language—is now being published in numbers. The work is stereotyped from new type (cast expressly for the work), printed on the finest quality of paper, and each part is illustrated with a fine steel engraving, engraved expressly for this work. This is got up in a style unsurpassed by any work ever printed in America. Complete in forty parts.

LIFE OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, MOTHER OF GOD; with the history of the devotion to her, to which is added

THE LIVES OF ST. JOSEPH, ST. JOACHIM, AND ST. ANNE. Translated from the French of Abbe Orsini, by Mrs. J. SADLIER. To be completed in thirty-four parts, with a fine steel engraving in each.

THE HISTORY OF THE LIFE OF OUR LORD AND SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST. Also,

THE HISTORY OF THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES. From the French of Father De Ligny. By Mrs. J. SADLIER. To be completed in twenty-five parts, with a fine steel engraving in each. A new edition of

THE CATHOLIC FAMILY BIBLE; with Notes by Bishop Challoner. To be completed in 44 parts, with a fine steel engraving in each. This edition is printed on fine sized and calendered paper, and the type is surrounded by a very handsome engraved border. It is illustrated with forty fine steel engravings, and a very beautiful colored title. This is the cheapest and handsomest edition of the Douay Bible published.

BUTLER'S LIVES OF THE SAINTS. Each part illustrated with a fine steel engraving. This new edition is printed in quarto form, uniform with the "Life of the Blessed Virgin." The letter-press is surrounded by a very elegant engraved border, which adds much to the appearance of the work. Persons who wish to obtain "Butler's Lives of the Saints," as the author left it, must be sure that they get SADLIER'S EDITION. We mention this, because there is an edition, published in numbers, by a Protestant firm in this city, in which the notes, and some of the lives, have been left out. The author's notes in our edition form about one-fifth of the entire work, and it is taking a most unwarrantable liberty with the work to leave them out. Our edition is complete. The notes are the most instructive portion of the work. For instance: there is one note in our edition, "On the Writings of St. John Chrysostom," which occupies TWENTY-THREE PAGES OF SMALL TYPE, and all that is left out of the mutilated edition.

HISTORY OF IRELAND. By the Abbe MacGeoghegan, with a continuation from the Treaty of Limerick to the present time, by John Mitchel. Complete in 40 parts, with a beautiful steel engraving in each, and a colored title page.

HISTORY OF IRELAND,

By MacGEOGHEGAN and MITCHEL,

To be issued in parts of thirty-two pages, with a Fine Steel Engraving in each part.

PRICE TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

Many of the Engravings are made from Photographs obtained from various persons, among the rest THE MARQUIS OF KILDARE.

We have also obtained a portrait of the great Irish Franciscan, FATHER LUKE WADDING, who was agent in Rome for the Irish Confederates of 1641.

We have original Portraits of Hugh O'Neil; O'Sullivan Bear; Peter Lombard, Archbishop of Armagh; Francis Conry, Archbishop of Tuam; Archbishop Plunket; St. Patrick; Sarsfield; King James and King William, (group); Napper Tandy, Wolfe Tone and Lord Edward Fitzgerald, (group); Thomas Addis Emmet, Robert Emmet and Dr. MacNeven, (group); Samuel Neilson and John and Henry Sheares, (group); Curran, Grattan and Flood, (group); Gerald IX, Earl of Kildare, etc., etc.

In addition to the Portraits, we have the following subjects engraved: King Brian killed by the Viking; Dermod McMurrough in the English Camp; St. Patrick going to Tara; Massacre at Drogheda; Marriage of Eva and Strongbow; Views of Cashel, Limerick and the Shannon; St. Canice, Kilkenny; Carrickfergus Castle; and a number of others.

THE WANT OF A HISTORY OF IRELAND, down to the present time, produced in a style of typography and illustration in keeping with the advanced taste of the day, and of such literary and national ability as to stamp it as a work of enduring value, has long been felt. In the work now offered, the publishers feel that under every aspect they will meet the requirements of the case.

Among the various Histories of Ireland, there is none that so justly commands the attention of the Irish race as that originally written in French by the Abbé MacGeoghegan, a chaplain in the Irish Brigade, intimately connected with the officers, or the immediate descendants of officers, who fought at Limerick and Aughrim. Thoroughly versed in the ancient annals of his unhappy country, and almost a witness of much of the stirring period that closed the seventeenth century, he presented to the Irish in France, as well as the polished natives of that country, a true picture of the History of the Isle of Saints.

Full of patriotic feeling, careful in research, gifted with eloquence and narrative talent of a high order, he wrote his works with the graces of style necessary in that day to command attention among readers in France, and which make it, when translated, so acceptable to all.

These qualities render his work far superior to any that preceded or have followed it. Dullness of style on the one hand, unfaithfulness to Ireland on the other, render some of the published histories utterly valueless. In MacGeoghegan, all necessary qualities were combined, and it is not surprising that O'Connell, Davis, Archbishop MacHale, and, indeed, all prominent men in Ireland, have attested its superiority and excellence. We now give it thoroughly and carefully revised.

Thomas Davis, in his essay on Irish history, speaks of it as follows. "Well, as to this National History—L' Abbé MacGeoghegan published a History of Ireland, in 3 vols., quarto, dedicated to the Irish Brigade Writing in France, he was free from the English censorship: writing for 'The Brigade,' he avoided the impudence of Hugenot historians. The sneers of the deist Voltaire, and the lies of the Catholic Cambrensis, receive a sharp chastisement in his preface, and a full answer in his text. He was a man of the most varied acquirements and an elegant writer. More full references, and the correction of a few errors of detail, would render his book more satisfactory to the professor of history, but for the student it is the best in the world. He is graphic, easy and Irish. He is not a bigot, but apparently a genuine Catholic. His information as to the number of troops, and other facts of our Irish battles, is superior to any other general historian's; and they who know it well need not blush, as most Irishmen must now, at their ignorance of Irish history."

The Dublin Review says: "Every person anxious for the diffusion of useful historical knowledge among the Irish people, will rejoice that a beautiful edition of Abbé MacGeoghegan's History of Ireland has obtained a success almost unprecedented in the annals of Dublin publishing. The Abbé, as our readers know, was Chaplain to the Irish Brigade, and for that very reason had the spirit, as well as the means, of writing a good popular history of his native land. No library is perfect without Abbé MacGeoghegan."

MacGeoghegan's work stops at the Fall of Limerick. To give the important history of the last and present century, required also an able hand. The History of Ireland, from the Fall of Limerick to our day, has been written by one who has long been himself an historic character, and whose judgment, research and ability as a writer have ever commanded respect. In itself, that history, from the pen of John Mitchel, will be the most valuable contribution to Irish history ever issued in this country certainly no more fitting continuation could be found for the work of MacGeoghegan.

This complete History of Ireland will be produced by the publishers in a style suited to the intrinsic worth of the volume. No expense will be spared to render it a most attractive work. It is printed from new type, each page encircled by an emblematic border, and it will be illustrated by steel engravings of excellence. These illustrations will be of the highest merit and authenticity, and will give, for the first time, portraits of many of Ireland's greatest worthies, such as Hugh O'Neil, Gerald, Earl of Kildare, Father Luke Wadding, etc., from original portraits preserved at Rome, or in the seats of the Irish nobility, and obtained by us with great difficulty and without regard to expense.

CONDITIONS OF THE WORK.

The History of Ireland, by MacGeoghegan and Mitchel, will be issued in 40 numbers, of 32 pages each, with an emblematic border to the page, designed by Maclise.

Each number will contain a fine steel plate; and an illuminated title page, executed in the highest style of chromo-lithographic art, will be given with the first number.

No subscription will be received except for the entire work, and that will be completed in 40 numbers, without any delay or alteration in these conditions.

Superiors of Religious Communities.

I beg to call your attention to a late and important improvement in the manufacture of STATUES, BAPTISMAL FONTS, AND CRUCIFIXES, for the use of Churches, Chapels, and Private Oratories.

They are made entirely of Metal (zinc and tin), and have been pronounced by all who have seen them vastly superior to anything of the kind yet produced in this country.

In point of beauty they are fully equal to the choicest European Work, and, as regards durability, that superiority is unquestionable.

MURPHY & CO. Publishers and Catholic Booksellers, Baltimore,

A School-Book of Unprecedented Popularity.

ILLUSTRATED BIBLE HISTORY.

Translated from the Fifty-Eighth German Edition

DR. SCHUSTER'S

History of the Old & New Testaments.

PREPARED FOR THE USE OF THE

Cat holic Schools in the United States and Dominion of Canada,

BY MRS. JAMES SADLIER.

HONORED BY LETTER OF ENDORSEMENT FROM

HIS HOLINESS POPE PIUS IX.,

And Approved by nearly all the Cardinals, Archbishops, and Bishops of Europe and the United States.

The present work, written originally in German by a reverend doctor of high standing, stamped by the approbation of the Holy Father himself, and of the whole German episcopate, speedily attained an immense popularity in all the German countries, and in the course of a few years passed through a great number of editions. From Catholic Germany it soon passed to other European countries, having been translated into various languages and finally it has been introduced into our American schools in German, French, and English Its immense popularity as a class-book in Catholic schools is easily accounted for by the clearness and simplicity of the narrative, which is unencumbered by those learned dissertations which have only the effect of disgusting and wearying the young student Dr. Schuster appears to have well understood the art of relating great and important facts in a manner so plain and so direct that even the youngest children can understand what they read.

RETAIL PRICE, 60 CENTS.

Sample copies for examination, with a view to introduction, free. Special terms for first introduction.

TESTIMONIALS.

"GREENLEAF'S MATHEMATICAL WORKS I regard of a standard character; very complete and practical. For advanced classes, the Geometry, Algebra, and Higher Arithmetics are excellent manuals; and for classes of beginners the New Primary and New Elementary Arithmetics furnish an attractive course of easy lessons, well calculated to develop thought and advance the learner by ordinary gradations Approving these books, I have recommended them to be adopted to be used in the schools of the Brothers of the Christian Schools."—BROTHER PATRICK, late President of Manhattan College, and Visitor, Bros. of the Christian Schools.

"For simplicity, exactness, and completeness, we think GREENLEAF'S SERIES the best of the kind, and we have therefore adopted it in all our schools."—SISTERS OF ST. JOSEPH, Carondelet, Mo.

"We have used GREENLEAF'S SERIES OF ARITHMETICS many years, and have no desire to change them."—SISTERS OF NOTRE DAME, East Boston, Jan. 31, 1874.

SACRED ART AND MUSIC.

DAWKINS & DANIELS,

CELEBRATED

Dioramic Mirror

OF EIGHTEEN HUNDRED YEARS AGO.

Illustrating Father Francis de Ligny's

LIFE OF CHRIST

From his Incarnation to his Ascension, comprising seventy-five pictures 26x28 feet, when exhibited being the most sublime and sacred exhibition ever presented to the Catholic public. From the opening to the close of the exhibition, the audience gaze upon the scenes with wonder and admiration. The pictures, being all copied from the originals in the picture galleries of Europe by the best masters on the subject, reproduce every trait and character true to nature, and give a complete panorama of the great scenes in the life of our Blessed Lord.

None, old or young, can possess or enjoy life in the Church without having Jesus Christ brought before their minds as God, who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and was made man; who suffered for us under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; who on the third day rose again from the dead and ascended into heaven, and there sitteth on the right hand of the Father, from thence to come to judge the living and the dead. This exhibition, which can be shown in the Churches (thereby obviating the necessity of hiring public halls), particularly claims the attention of the Catholic people, as each and every picture is brought out true to nature, illustrating in the most graphic manner the great scenes in the Life of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, his Doctrines, his Miracles, his Passion, his Death, his Resurrection and Glorious Ascension. All those scenes are beautifully wrought and shown with the aid of powerful and brilliant lights on a canvas sheet to the size, as before stated, of 26x28 feet; in conjunction with the appropriate music introduced, together make one of the most sublime and instructive exhibitions ever presented to the people.

Truth, as far as possible, must ever be the sacred duty of the illustration of a history, and the picture which illustrates a history must aim at becoming a second auxiliary historian. If the picture does not in every case answer expectation, it must be remembered that it was not in our power to overrule the works of the great masters, painters, designers, and engravers. At the same time no labor or expense has been spared to make this exhibition as perfect as possible; and though much might no doubt have been better, still it is hoped that the incessant pains and labor devoted to this work of art will not be without their portion of good success.

Catholic Clergymen, Schools, Benevolent and other Associations wishing the above exhibition, for terms—which are moderate—will please address

REVERSIBLE-BACK

SETTEES.

Pews of any Pattern made to order.

Settees with reversible backs, enabling the occupant to face either way, are not uncommon. They are known in the lecture-room and in the Sunday-school, and more particularly in the railway car, but hitherto they have not been constructed with adjustable seats as well as backs. It is undeniable that a seat, to be comfortable, must pitch downward from the front edge. Comfort and physiological considerations alike demand this.

OUR PATENT SETTEES

have this advantage; besides, the back is reversed without turning it over—it is suspended on a pivot like a pendulum, and is easily changed, at the same time giving the seat the proper pitch, and holding it securely in position. Strength and elegance have not been overlooked. These settees have been preferred in every case where a reversible seat is desirable. We are making Stationary Seats to match the Reversibles, which are unequalled for beauty and comfort.

Compound Syrup of Spruce Gum

TRADE

AS PREPARED BY THE

Sisters of Providence,

MONTREAL AND BURLINGTON, VT.

It is thirty years and upwards since we commenced preparing this Syrup under the present name, and during this time we have given away to the poor of this city and sold many thousands of bottles. It has been only at the earnest solicitation of our friends, of all classes and denominations, that we have considered it our duty to put it up in a shape suitable to be sold on the market, by this means reaching all who may need it. The formula of the remedy is well known to medical gentlemen of this city, and approved of by them as one of the best remedial agents known to the medical faculty for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Pains in the Chest, Disease of the Lungs, and all Pulmonary affections.

Its pleasant taste renders it peculiarly adapted for children, and if carefully administered, according to the directions, may be given to a child of a month old with perfect safety, and will afford immediate relief.

It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucous, heals the irritated parts, and creates a healthy action.

One of our most eminent city physicians, Dr. E. H. Trudel, professor in the Victoria Medical College, Montreal, and head physician at the dispensaries of the Sisters of Providence, etc., etc., who has used it extensively in his practice for nearly twenty years, speaks of it as follows: "75 DUBORD STREET, MONTREAL.

"It is now eighteen years and upwards that I have been attending physician to the Reverend Sisters of the Providence Asylum. During that period I have prescribed their 'Compound Syrup of Spruce Gum' not only to the inmates, but also to outside patients.

"The valuable properties this Syrup possesses induce me to place it in the foremost rank amongst the remedies known to the therapeutist in all cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, and Consumption, affording those troubled with these complaints the most wonderful relief. E. H. TRUDEL, M.D."

In placing this remedy before the public, we trust you will believe we are not actuated by any sordid motive. Our object is not gain for ourselves, but that we may increase our means of doing good. We presume you are aware that our house is supported by voluntary contributions, and any increase to our means derived from our industry is devoted to alleviating the wants and the sufferings of the afflicted, the aged, the infirm, the friendless, homeless, and orphans of all classes and creeds.

We visit the sick and assist the needy to the utmost extent of our means, and we are sure that all will bear testimony of our desire to do good. To be ill or in want is sufficient to enlist our sympathy and receive our care.

Trusting to receive your hearty co-operation and support,

We have the honor to be, etc.,

COMPOUND LINIMENT,

For Rheumatism, Neuralgia, etc., prepared by the Sisters of Providence, Montreal, Canada, and Winooski, Vt.

This medicine was brought from Chili by the Sisters of Providence about fifteen years ago, since which time its use, both in Canada and in the United States, has been followed with marvellous efficacy, in cases of Rheumatism, especially Inflammatory, Sciatica, Pains in the Back, etc.

Its wonderful success created such a demand from all parts that the Sisters were induced to offer it to the public at large, after securing a patent. Persons generally prejudiced against patent medicines have admitted its worth upon trial, and offered the testimony of their names.

PRICE 75 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

MONTREAL, December 22, 1875.

I have known for a considerable time past the substances which constitute the Compound Liniment, prepared by the RR. SS. of Providence. The experience I have made of it myself, and the favorable results obtained by its use, compel me to recommend it highly for all sorts of pains, and especially for Inflammatory Rheumatism.

E. H. TRUDEL, M.D,
Professor of Midwifery and of Diseases of Women and Children at the Faculty of the Victoria University, Physician of the Hôtel Dieu, Consulting Physician of the Dispensary of the Sisters of Providence.

I was recently cured in a few minutes of violent rheumatic pains, which had settled for a time in my neck and shoulders; and this was effected by one application of the "Compound Liniment," prepared by the Reverend Sisters of Providence. My recovery was immediate and well-nigh marvellous: and from that hour I have felt no rheumatic pain whatsoever. I have besides had occasion to test the wonderful power of this remedy in my own family, and in the case of some friends, when used as a cure for acute neuralgia. Gratitude has induced me to give this slight token of my fortunate experience of this precious Liniment.

Official Reporter at the Montreal Court-house.

SYRUP FOR WHOOPING-COUGH,

Prepared by the Sisters of Providence. This Syrup, for children who are afflicted with the Whooping-Cough, is prepared according to the safest medical principles. The Sisters, in their visits of charity to the poorer classes, have employed this remedy for many years, and always with most happy results. Wishing to extend its benefit to all who suffer from Whooping-Cough, they offer it for sale, according to all legal formalities for the circulation of such remedies. Mark well the trade mark. Price 50 cents per Bottle.

MONTREAL, December 22, 1875.

I, the undersigned doctor in medicine, declare to have often prescribed for Whooping-Cough the Syrup prepared by the RR. SS. of Providence. I can certify from the experience I have had in its favorable effects in my practice, and the happy results that have been often mentioned to me, that it is one of the best preparations which can be prescribed for that disease.

E. H. TRUDEL, M.D, Professor, etc.

The Main Buildings

OF PHILADELPHIA.

The firm started in a small corner of the old brick building at Sixth and Market, now somewhat changed by the iron fronted building, covering four lots, and known far and near as OAK HALL.

The house is exclusively devoted to clothing for men and boys, and is popular because of the large stock, low prices, and thoroughly reliable methods of business originated and still carried on there.

WANAMAKER'S WAREHOUSES

HATS AND CAPS,
BOOTS AND SHOES,
SHIRTS AND FURNISHING GOODS,
TRUNKS AND VALISES.
RUBBER GOODS.
LADIES' COATS.

The rules of the house prevent anything but safe dealing for even the most inexperienced buyers. The large volume of business allows the smallest kind of profits, so that goods are nowhere cheaper and seldom so cheap elsewhere.

Visitors Welcomed!

THE NEW ESTABLISHMENT AT Thirteenth and Market street is a wonder to the throngs of people daily visiting it. It covers 2½ acres in the heart of the city, and on one grand floor is found between one and two million dollars in

MEN'S AND BOYS' CLOTHING,

WANAMAKER'S WAREHOUSES

An odd feature of the business is to invite and insist on customers returning goods and taking back the money if they are not satisfied.

NOTE.—We Send Samples and directions for self-measurement, on request, to any part of the Land, and guarantee satisfaction in every case. Address

DR. SHERMAN

To the Ruptured.

DR. SHERMAN respectfully informs his patients and the public that he has returned from California, and may be consulted daily at his office, 1 Ann Street, corner of Park Row, by those wishing to obtain the benefit of his system of relieving and curing rupture. Attention is called to the views of Dr. Stone, the celebrated surgeon and founder of Stone's Hospital, New Orleans, La., on the injuries resulting from the long-continued use of trusses. He says:

"Trusses undermine the constitution just as certain as the perpetual dripping of water wears away a stone. The force of the front pad upon the abdomen affects the bladder, and, coming in contact, as it of certainty does, with the ligament tendons and spermatic cords, impairs their important functions to such an extent as to bring on the most mortifying condition of imbecility, peevishness, and dejection of spirits, while the pressure across the lower part of the spine is productive of backache, lumbago, and kidney diseases. These complicated affections produced by using trusses compel the unfortunate, sooner or later, to look upon life as dispelling rather than inviting pleasures."

All the objections of the truss are overcome in the applications made in Dr. Sherman's method of cure, and the parts injured by the use of trusses restored to natural vigor and healthfulness.

Those who are ruptured should consult Dr. Sherman, as his great experience, after thirty years' constant devotion to this specialty, is very valuable in view of relief and cure.

His book on

RUPTURE,

Illustrated with photograph likenesses of bad cases before and after cure, he mails for ten cents. It contains valuable information for the ruptured.

Dr. Sherman is permitted to refer to reliable gentlemen in this city who have been cured by his treatment.

THE AMERICAN CATHOLIC QUARTERLY REVIEW.

This periodical has now completed the first year of its existence, and has unquestionably, to say the least, made good its right to a continued existence. What place it occupies in Catholic periodical literature is sufficiently manifested by the commendatory notices of the non-Catholic as well as Catholic press, extracts from which we have published from time to time.

The publishers and conductors of the American Catholic Quarterly Review did not expect to be able to make it from the start all that they hope it will eventually become. They labored under no such delusion. They were well aware that a Review must grow—grow not only in the estimation of the public, but also in its hold upon its readers, and in its influence upon their opinions. They knew well that it was impossible at once to create a staff of regular contributors, or to realize at once the conception on which the Review is based. But they believed that, as there was an urgent necessity for such a publication as the Review aims at becoming, and to some extent has already become, they would not fail to receive the required literary as well as financial support. In this belief they have not been disappointed. And, as regards the future, they hope that as the usefulness of the Review comes to be more clearly perceived, and its character as an able and dignified exponent of Catholic principles, in their relations both to the fundamental, unchanging truths of Catholicity, and also to the practical applications of those truths to the momentous questions of the day, comes to be more widely known, both these forms of support will be enlarged.

Of one thing the patrons of the Review may rest assured. That is, that the publishers and conductors will continue their efforts to obtain as contributors to the pages of the Review the ablest and most eminent writers they can possibly secure. That they have measurably succeeded in this during the first year of the Review's existence is ground not only for encouragement to persevere, but also for expecting a still greater degree of success in the future.

The Catholic Record,

A Monthly Magazine of General Literature.

SUITABLE FOR ALL CLASSES OF CATHOLIC READERS.

The RECORD abounds each month with scholarly Essays on Religious, Scientific, and Literary subjects, from the pens of well-known Catholic writers, and also gives a very large proportion of space to Stories, Poems, and matter of a light character. In a word, it has been the aim of the publishers to make the CATHOLIC RECORD a first-class Catholic Magazine for the people.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"This monthly is fast becoming a favorite with all classes. Its mission to instruct and please is a great one, and nobly has it striven to fulfil it."—Catholic, Pittsburgh, Pa.

"Philadelphia is fast training on some first-class Catholic talent, and the Record is one of the cheering evidences of its intellectual development."—The Catholic Mirror, Baltimore.

"This is one of the very best magazines in the country, in a literary point of view, and all the while it indicates sound, safe, Catholic doctrine, and a vein of Christian piety runs through all its pages."—The Catholic Guardian, San Francisco.

"Families wishing a cheap Catholic magazine should subscribe for the Catholic Record. It is full of all sorts of interesting Catholic stories for the younger members of the household, besides its full share of more thoughtful articles for the elder. The price is only $2 50 per annum."—The Catholic Vindicator.

"One of our prime favorites amongst our American Catholic serials is, and has been almost from its first appearance, the Catholic Record, of Philadelphia. In its well-printed pages you are sure to find every month something very well worth reading and remembering."—The New York Tablet.

"We have no more emphatic approbation to bestow upon this monthly, which we heartily welcome to our table, than the reproducing of its leading article in our unpretending column. We like its tone, which has the true sound. Its ring vibrates in our ears as that of the genuine metal; its manly Catholicity compels our homage, and in its fearless exhibition of it we find grounds for the justification of our estimate. To all our readers we heartily and earnestly commend this periodical. Its cost is little, but its worth is great. We wish we had many such in our communities."—The Catholic Propagateur, New Orleans.

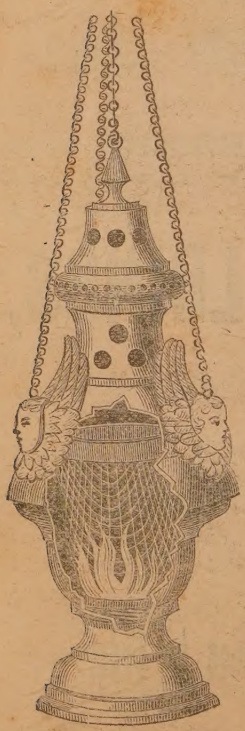
Dunn's Patent Censer.

Its Merits, Prices, and Directions for Use.



There has been a great difficulty in using the old Censer, as every clergyman knows well. It is impossible to regulate the burning of charcoal so as to have it ready at the moment required, and oft-times, on this account, the services are delayed. It has also been the source of great annoyance to the servants in the house by upsetting their cooking arrangements by having to light the charcoal from the cook-stove. At other times the Priest's house is too far removed from the church to conveniently get fire. All these inconveniences and delays are entirely overcome by the use of Dunn's Patent Lamp, which is placed inside the Censer. This Lamp has a large absorbent wick, which need never be renewed. All that is necessary is to saturate it with alcohol (about a tablespoonful is enough). There cannot, possibly, be any danger from its use, as there is no fluid alcohol—it all having been absorbed by the wick, which is made of asbestos.

This new Censer is so constructed that the fi is made in less than five minutes, without the le trouble, and will burn without swinging, retaini the fire during the longest service of the Churci

For neatness, lightness, cleanliness, and promptness, it is unequalled. Another feature: a good Priest on a country mission suggests that on cold mornings, when there is no fire in the church, the lamp can be unscrewed from the Censer lighted and placed upon the Altar, so that the celebrant may, from time to time, be able to warm his fingers over it.

The testimony of every Priest who has se n it: "Just the thing we want."

Directions for Using Dunn's Patent Censer.

Unscrew the bottom, saturate the asbestos wick of the lamp with Alcohol, a d light it; screw on the bottom, put charcoal in the fire basket, and let alone for three minutes—it is then ready for use.
